Thus, article 13 of the Bylaws, in its ninth section, attributes to the General Meeting the power to agree to modify them. Article 20 sets down that the adoption of resolutions on the issue of bonds that are convertible into shares or bonds that attribute a share in Company earnings to bondholders; capital increases and reductions; the removal or limitation of pre-emptive rights to acquire new shares; the conversion, merger or spin-off or the global assignment of the Company's assets and liabilities or the transfer of its registered office abroad, and, in general, any amendment to the Bylaws, shall require that the shareholders present or represented at first call hold at least 50% of the subscribed share capital with voting rights. On second call, the attendance of shareholders accounting for 25% of the share capital will be sufficient. When shareholders representing 25% or more of the subscribed capital with voting rights but less than 50% attend the second call, such resolutions may only be validly adopted with the vote of two-thirds of the capital present or represented at the Meeting. Further, in compliance with the provisions of Article 286 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, when the annual or extraordinary General Meeting has to resolve on the modification of the Bylaws, the notice of call must, with due clarity, express the matters to be modified and the rights of every shareholder to examine, at the registered office, the full text of the proposed modification and the report thereon, as well as to request that these documents be delivered or sent to them (Article 16 of the Company's Bylaws).

Article 21 of the Company's Bylaws establishes that shareholders that hold one thousand or more Company shares may attend the General Shareholders' Meeting in person or remotely and take part in its deliberations, with the right to speak and vote. In order to exercise their right to attend, shareholders must have the shares registered in their name in the corresponding book entry register five days prior to the day on which the General Shareholders' Meeting is to be held. Shareholders owning fewer shares may group together and grant their proxy to another shareholder in order to reach one thousand or more shares. Any shareholder entitled to attend may be represented at the General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, even if that person is not a shareholder.

If so, describe these diversity policies, their objectives, the measures and the way in which they have been applied and their results over the year. Also indicate the specific measures adopted by the Board of Directors and the nomination and remuneration committee to achieve a balanced and diverse presence of directors.

If the company does not apply a diversity policy, explain the reasons why.

Description of policies, objectives, measures and how they have been applied, and results achieved

The Company has a specific Director Selection and Diversity Policy (the "Policy"), which is available to view on the corporate website: (https://www.caf.net/upload/accionista/POLITICA-DE-DIVERSIDAD-Y-DE-SELECCION-DE-CONSEJEROS-2020_en.pdf).

The Policy is intended to ensure that any proposals for the appointment and re-election of CAF directors are based on a prior needs assessment of the Board of Directors, as well as to enrich the diversity of knowledge, experience, age and gender of the Board members by following criteria that ensures adequate diversity among the members and the absence of any implicit biases that may lead to discrimination based on age, gender, disability or any other personal circumstance or situation.

The Policy establishes that it is the responsibility of the Board to ensure that the director selection procedures meet these objectives and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of female directors in a number that allows for a balance between women and men to be achieved.

The aim is to ensure that the Board of Directors and its committees have a balanced composition that enriches decision-making and contributes a diversity of points of view, with full compliance with the suitability requirements, both individual and joint, of these bodies.

In this respect, criteria aimed at ensuring diversity on the Board of Directors serve as an important element in analysing the needs of the Board of Directors when it comes to the selection of directors. This is achieved by using the Board's competences matrix, which the Nomination and Remuneration Committee regularly updates.

Diversity criteria may influence the selection of board members when the assurance of a diverse membership is required so as to benefit the Company by offering a broad range of experiences and perspectives that add value in the decision-making processes of the Board of Directors.

Notably, the Policy sets out diversity criteria in relation to the following categories: (i) Training and work experience, (ii) Age, (iii) Disability, and (iv) Gender (see Section 4 of the Policy).

The Regulations of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee attribute to this Committee the function of annually verifying compliance with the Diversity and Director Selection Policy, reporting on this in the annual corporate governance report.

In 2023, the Board of Directors proposed the reappointment of Javier Martínez Ojinaga as executive director of the company to the General Shareholders' Meeting, together with ratification of the appointment by co-option of Begoña Beltrán de Heredia Villa to fill the vacancy on the Board on 24 February 2023, and her appointment as independent director, following a recommendation from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

These reappointment and appointment ratification processes complied strictly with the provisions of the Policy, both in relation to the diversity criteria and in terms of the conditions the candidates must meet in terms of good reputation, suitability, recognised solvency, competence, experience, training, qualifications, dedication and commitment to the role of director.

Both proposed agreements were approved by the Board with sufficient majorities.

As of the date of issuance of this report, the Board of Directors is made up of eleven members. Its composition is reasonably balanced, with its members being highly qualified and offering extensive professional experience, enriched with skills that are relevant to the Company. Its composition is consistent with the diversity objectives set out in the Policy.

As a fundamental tool for supervising the balance, diversity and quality of the Board, the Committee duly updated its competences matrix in 2023, submitting this tool for review to ensure its validity and alignment with the Company's strategy.

On 18 December 2023, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee issued its Annual Report verifying compliance with the Diversity and Director Selection Policy in that year. The conclusions presented were favourable, as explained in greater detail in Section C.1.7 of this report.

- C.1.6 Describe the measures, if any, agreed upon by the nomination committee to ensure that selection procedures do not contain hidden biases which impede the selection of female directors and that the company deliberately seeks and includes women who meet the target professional profile among potential candidates, making it possible to achieve a balance between men and women. Also indicate whether these measures include encouraging the company to have a significant number of women in executive positions:

Explanation of measures

CAF's Nomination and Remuneration Committee ensures that when covering new vacancies, the selection processes utilised are not implicitly impartial and do not hinder the selection of female directors, thus it includes women with the required profile among potential candidates and under the same conditions to achieve a balance between men and women. Article 3 of the Committee's Regulations also set out, as one of its duties, "Establishing a target level of representation of the gender with the lowest representation on the Board of Directors and issuing guidelines on how to achieve that target".

The Company's Diversity and Director Selection Policy sets out to ensure that the number of female directors should represent at all times the percentage of the total number of members of the Board of Directors established by the good governance recommendations or, where applicable, by law.

This objective has resulted in significant progress in recent years in terms of the presence of women on the Board of Directors. Thus, from 2017 to 2020, CAF continuously met the target of achieving at least 30% of women on its Board, as established for 2020 under Recommendation No 14 of the Code of Good Governance (CGG) of Listed Companies. In 2020, the percentage of women on the Board of Directors increased to 36.36%, approaching the 40% that the revised version of the CGG recommended should be achieved before the end of 2022. This percentage remained the same until June 2022, when it temporarily fell to 30% when a vacancy arose on the Board of Directors.

Being aware of the need to restore the balance of women on the Board as quickly as possible, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee began the selection process for an independent candidate to recommend to the Board in 2022. This resulted in the appointment by co-option of Ms. Begoña Beltrán de Heredia on 24 February 2023. This appointment was ratified by the General Shareholders' Meeting held on 10 June 2023, returning the ratio of women on the Board to 36.36%, as it remains at the date of issue of this report.

Since joining the Board of Directors, Ms Beltrán de Heredia became part of the Audit Committee, being appointed Chairwoman of the same on October 4, 2023.

CAF will take into account and follow up on the diversity criteria defined in the CGG and in the Spanish regulations currently being processed when they are finally approved.

As regards senior executives, the Company maintains a clear commitment to equality objectives that promote the creation of mechanisms that facilitate the access of all available talent to managerial positions, irrespective of their gender. In this regard, it should be noted that the Group's Legal and Compliance Department is led by a woman who is an executive director and Secretary to the Board. Additionally, the head of Internal Audit is a woman.

The Company is also seeking to include more women on the management committees of the Group's business units and at various subsidiaries, having made significant progress in recent years.

If in spite of any measures adopted there are few or no female directors or senior managers, explain the reasons for this:

Explanation of reasons

CAF promotes equality in the selection and promotion processes, and is advancing in the implementation of measures that ensure a balanced representation of women and men at the various levels within the organisation.

As explained in the previous sections, the Company has made generalised progress in incorporating women onto the Board of Directors, on which the number of female directors increased in the reporting period, as described in previous sections, and into management positions in the organisation.

As provided for in CAF's Code of Conduct, Sustainability Policy and Diversity and Director Selection Policy, the Company is committed to respecting diversity and the right to equal treatment between women and men.

To this end, the Group, under the leadership of the Human Resources Department, actively promotes the absence of all discrimination, direct or indirect, especially on grounds of gender, as well as equal opportunities, through internal policies and strategies.

In turn, the Collective Agreement of CAF, S.A. states its aim to encourage women's access to employment and supports the effective application of the principle of equality and absence of discrimination in working conditions between women and men.

Also, the existence of an Equality Committee in the Company should be noted, which is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of equality plans and, in particular, of annually supervising the equality indicators in the personnel selection and promotion processes.

In view of all of the above, the measures that have been implemented will foreseeably lead to a progressive increase in the number of women in executive positions at the Group in the coming years.

C.1.7 Explain the conclusions of the nomination committee regarding verification of compliance with the policy aimed at promoting an appropriate composition of the Board of Directors.

On December 18, 2023, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee issued its Annual Report on verification of compliance with the Director Selection and Diversity Policy in said year.

This report monitors the application of the aforementioned Policy in the re-appointment and the ratification and appointment of the directors Mr. Javier Martínez Ojinaga and Ms. Begoña Beltrán de Heredia Villa as executive and independent directors, respectively, of the company, which were approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting on 10 June. The report concludes that the provisions had been met in relation to the diversity criteria in hiring and the conditions the candidates must meet in terms of good reputation, solvency, competence, experience, training, qualifications, dedication and commitment to the role of Director.

In particular, the report confirmed that the proposals for the re-election and ratification of the appointment of these Directors, respectively, were based on an analysis of the needs of the Board, in accordance with the competences matrix, with the aim of promoting diversity in a broad sense, in terms of gender and experience, knowledge, age, length of service of directors, among other aspects, as an essential factor for achieving their objectives from a plural and balanced standpoint. As a result of these analyses, the Board of Directors and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee both considered that the presence of the candidates on the Board and, in the case of Ms Beltrán de Heredia, the Audit Committee would reinforce the existing diversity and balance in the composition of these bodies by contributing their extensive knowledge and experience in areas of value to the Company.

Of the eleven members that currently make up the Board, two are classified as executive directors, two as proprietary directors, four as independent directors and another three as other external directors. Four of the members of the Board are women, in line, therefore, with Directive (EU) 2022/2381, of November 23, 2022, relating to a better gender balance among the directors of listed companies.

Therefore, CAF's Nomination and Remuneration Committee concluded that the Director Diversity and Selection Policy had been satisfactorily complied with in the financial year under review, and informed the Board of this decision at its meeting on 19 December 2023.

Notwithstanding the above, the Committee has stated it will monitor progress with the implementation of the new gender-balance requirements set down in Spanish regulations, in addition to good governance best practices and recommendations.

C.1.16 Specify the procedures for selection, appointment, re-election and removal of directors. List the competent bodies, steps to follow and criteria applied in each procedure.

The Board of Directors shall be composed of no less than seven and no more than fifteen members freely appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting or, in the case of early vacancy, by the same Board through co-option. The director does not need to be a shareholder. The prohibitions and incompatibilities established by law will apply (Article 29 of the Company's Bylaws). Should a vacancy occur during the period the Directors were appointed, the Board of Directors may cover them until the first General Meeting is held. Should the vacancy take place once the General Meeting has been called but before it is held, the Board of Directors may appoint a director until the following General Meeting is held. Should the vacancy be for the position of Chairman or Chief Executive Officer, the Board of Directors may cover the vacancies and temporarily appoint a Chairman. The Board may also appoint a Chief Executive Officer with the favourable vote of two thirds of its members. These appointments shall be fully effective until the first General Shareholders' Meeting (Article 33 of the Company's Bylaws). Furthermore, in the exercise of its powers to lay proposals before the General Meeting and of co-option in the case of vacancies, the Board shall ensure the balance of Board membership, with a broad majority of non-executive directors and an adequate proportion between proprietary and independent directors, with the latter representing at least one third of total Board membership (Article 7 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors). Any appointment or re-election proposal submitted by the Board of Directors to the General Meeting for approval and any nomination made by the Board by virtue of its powers of co-option must be preceded by the corresponding proposal from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in the case of independent directors, and from the Board for all other director categories. The proposal shall be accompanied with an explanatory report issued by the Board of Directors, assessing the competence, experience and merits of the proposed candidate, to be attached to the General Meeting or Board of Directors' Meeting minutes. The proposal for the appointment or re-election of any non-independent director shall also be preceded by a report from Nomination and Remunerations Committee. When the Board departs from the proposals of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, it must give reasons for its action and record these reasons in the minutes. (Article 15 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

With respect to the appointment of non-executive directors, the Board shall endeavour to ensure that candidates shall be selected from among persons recognised for their solvency, competence and experience, and extreme care shall be taken in respect of calls to fill independent director positions. Independent Directors will be considered those who, appointed based on their personal conditions and professional qualities, can discharge their functions without being influenced by relationships with the company or its group, significant shareholders or senior executives. No directors meeting the conditions provided for in Article 16.3 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors shall be considered independent directors. Proprietary directors are considered to be those who have a shareholding equal to or exceeding the level considered by law to be significant, or were appointed on the basis of their shareholder status, even though their shareholding does not reach the stipulated amount, and those who represent shareholders of the aforementioned parties. Proprietary Directors who lose such status due to disposal of shares by the shareholder they represent may only be re-elected as independent directors once the shareholder they represented has sold all the remaining shares in the Company. Any director who has a shareholding in the company may hold the position of independent director, provided they satisfy all the conditions established in the article and, in addition, their ownership interest is not material (Article 16, Sections 4 and 5 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

The selection of candidates for directorships will be based on a prior analysis of the needs of the Company's Board of Directors, which must be carried out by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Taking into account the Board's competences matrix, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will specify the profile and skills required from the new director and assess the suitability of each candidate. This Committee will keep a record of the evaluation carried out and the suitability of the candidate for the category to which he or she has been assigned in the minutes of the session in which the matter was discussed and, where applicable, in the report or proposal that the Committee must submit to the Board for the appointment or re-election of directors.

The Director Diversity and Selection Policy defines the conditions that candidates must meet, placing special emphasis on the fundamental objective of promoting diversity of knowledge, experience, age and gender among the members of the Board, applying criteria that ensure it is properly diversified and there are no implicit biases that could imply discrimination based on age, gender, disability, or any other condition of a personal nature. For further details, see Section C.1.5 of this report.

C.1.17 Explain to what extent the annual evaluation of the Board has given rise to significant changes in its internal organisation and in the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description of amendments

The Board of Directors, on the basis of operating reports issued by the committees and the assessment report by the independent external consultant, the results of which were positive, has evaluated the performance of the Board and its committees in 2023 positively and verified that all Action Plans put in place for that year have been fulfilled.

Likewise, within the framework of the aforementioned evaluation process, the external consultant has recommended different improvement initiatives, although these do not lead to important changes in the internal organisation or in the procedures applicable to its activities.

Describe the evaluation process and the areas evaluated by the Board of Directors with or without the help of an external advisor, regarding the functioning and composition of the Board and its committees and any other area or aspect that has been evaluated.

Description of the evaluation process and evaluated areas

In accordance with the provisions of article 5.5 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors must carry out an annual evaluation of its functioning and that of its Committees and propose, based on its results, an action plan that corrects the detected deficiencies.

Following Recommendation 36 of the CGG, which provides for the intervention of an external consultant in the process every three years, in fiscal year 2023 the assistance of an evaluator has been required, whose independence has been verified by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

The external consultant examined the corporate documents published on the Company's website, including its Bylaws, the Regulations of the Board and its Committees, the Code of Conduct, corporate governance reports, reports prepared by the Committees, and the Company's policies, in addition to the minutes of meetings of the Board and its Committees. They examined over 150 items related to the functioning of the Board of Directors, monitoring of recommendations from the CGG, the technical guidance of the Audit Committees and the Nomination and Remuneration Committees, and adaptation to the current legal framework. They also interviewed all of the Directors.

The Assessment Report, which concluded favourably, was presented to the Board of Directors at its meeting in December, where it was unanimously approved, together with the improvement initiatives identified.

C.1.18 Provide details, for years in which the evaluation was carried out with the help of an external advisor, of the business relationships that the external advisor or company in its group maintains with the company or any company in its group.

The external consultant engaged to evaluate the performance of the Board and its Committees during the period has not had any relations with the Company or any company in its Group, other than this evaluation service.

In the declaration of independence provided to the Company, the consultant confirmed they "have no commercial relationship with CAF, its board members or executives, and can, therefore, confirm their independence for the performance of the work for which they have been engaged."

C.1.19 Indicate the cases in which directors are obliged to resign.

Directors must tender their resignation to the Board of Directors and, if the latter sees fit, resign in the following cases: a) When the specific circumstances for which they were appointed, as the case may be, cease to exist and, in particular, proprietary directors must resign when the shareholder they represent sells its entire shareholding or diminishes it to a level that requires a reduction of the number of proprietary directors. b) If they are found to be in a situation of incompatibility due to a conflict of interest or any other legal reason. c) Should they be processed for any alleged crime or when subject to disciplinary measures for a serious or very serious breach as determined by the supervising authorities. d) When seriously reprimanded by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee for not upholding director obligations. e) When involved in a situation that creates a conflict of interest with the Company or violates the duty to provide information and abstain. f) When they breach the non-competition agreement.

The directors shall inform the Board and, where applicable, resign, when situations affecting them arise, that may or may not be related to the duties they discharge within the Company, that may harm its good name and reputation and, in particular, in the event of any criminal case in which they appear as the investigated party, or otherwise party to the proceedings. The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become apprised of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the measures to be adopted. All of this will be disclosed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special justifying circumstances, which must be recorded in the minutes. The foregoing is without prejudice to the information that the Company must release, if required, at the time the corresponding measures are implemented. The Board of Directors shall not propose the removal of independent directors before the expiry of the term for which they were appointed, as mandated by the Company's Bylaws, except where just cause is found by the Board of Directors, based on a proposal from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. When a director resigns from their position before their tenure expires, they must sufficiently explain their reasons or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion on the reasons for removal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter sent to all members of the Board of Directors. (Article 18 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

If so, provide a brief description of the rules.

Article 31 of the Company's Bylaws and Article 14 of the Regulation of the Board of Directors establish that directors shall make every effort to attend Board meetings and, when they cannot do so personally, may confer their representation to another director in writing addressed to the Board Chairman, with no restriction on the number of proxies that each director can hold for Board attendance, although a separate proxy must be granted for each meeting. Proxy may be granted in writing through any means and shall include the corresponding direction of the vote for each of the matters mentioned in the agenda.

These same rules also specify that non-executive directors may only confer their proxy on a fellow non-executive director.

C.1.25 Indicate the number of meetings held by the Board of Directors during the year. Also indicate, if applicable, the number of times the Board met without the chairman being present. Meetings where the chairman gave specific proxy instructions are to be counted as attended.

The Board of Directors will submit to the General Meeting the financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting legislation. In the event that the auditor includes any qualification, the Chair of the Audit Committee will clearly explain at the General Meeting the opinion of the Committee on its content and scope. Also, a summary of that opinion will be made available to shareholders at the time of publication of the call to the General Meeting, together with the other proposals and reports of the Board (Article 37 of the Board Regulations).

To this end, the separate and consolidated financial statements are subject to prior review by the Company's Audit Committee, which is assigned, inter alia, the responsibility of supervising and evaluating the preparation, presentation and completeness of the financial and non-financial information relating to the Company and, where applicable, to the group, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the adequate delimitation of the consolidation perimeter and the correct application of accounting criteria, and presenting recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors, directed to safeguard its integrity (Article 3 of the Regulations of the Audit Committee). It is also the responsibility of the Audit Committee to collect information regularly from the auditors on the auditing process and in particular on any differences that may arise between the auditors and the Company's management. When the audit has been completed, the Committee shall review, along with the external auditor, any significant findings brought to light from these tasks, as well as the content of its mandatory reports. (Article 13 of the Audit Committee Regulations).

The financial statements for 2022 and previous years were approved by the Board of Directors without qualifications.

C.1.29 Is the secretary of the Board also a director?

- Yes
 No

If the secretary is not a director, complete the following table:

C.1.30 Indicate the specific mechanisms established by the company to safeguard the independence of the external auditors, and any mechanisms to safeguard the independence of financial analysts, investment banks and rating agencies, including how legal provisions have been implemented in practice.

Mechanisms to preserve the independence of external auditors:

In addition, according to the Company's Bylaws, the Audit and Compliance Committee is responsible for managing the relationships with the external auditors in order to gather information on matters that may call the auditor's independence into question, to be analysed by the Committee, as well as any other matters related to the auditing process, and any other disclosures set forth in accounting and auditing legislation and auditing standards. The Audit Committee must receive a statement from the external auditor, annually, affirming its independence in relation to the Company or companies directly or indirectly connected to such, as well as the information of any type of additional services rendered and corresponding fees received from these entities by the auditor, or by persons or entities associated to the latter, pursuant to the governing regulations concerning the undertaking of account auditing. Similarly, according to the Company's Bylaws, every year the Audit Committee is required to issue, prior to the issuance of the audit report, an annual report containing an opinion on the auditor's independence (Article 37 bis of the Company's Bylaws).

Pursuant to the foregoing, the Audit Committee has its own Regulations governing its nature, composition, functions, terms of reference and powers. Pursuant to these Regulations, the Audit Committee is responsible for the following functions linked to the external auditor and to preserve its independency: (i) submitting, to the Board of Directors, the proposals for the selection, appointment, reappointment and removal of the Company's external auditor, being responsible also for the selection process, pursuant to Article 16, paragraphs 2, 3, 5 and 17.5 of Regulation (EU) 537/2014 of 16 April, as well as his or her terms of employment, and regularly collecting information about the audit plan and its execution while also ensuring the external auditor's independence when carrying out its duties; (ii) Establish the pertinent relationships with the external auditors in order to receive information on any matters that might compromise their independence, for scrutiny by the Committee, and any other matters related to the financial audit process and, where appropriate, authorisation for services other than prohibited services, pursuant to Articles 5.4 and 6.2.b) of Regulation (EU) No 537/2014, of 16 April, and to Section 3 of Chapter IV of Title I of Spanish Audit Law 22/2015 of 20 July, on the independence regime, as well as any other communications provided for in audit legislation and standards. In any event, each year the external auditors will be required to furnish a statement of their independence with respect to the entity or entities related directly or indirectly to the Company, as well as detailed information on each of the additional services of any kind rendered and the related fees received from these entities by the external auditor or by any persons or entities related thereto, in accordance with Spanish audit legislation. (iii) Issue annually, prior to the issue of the auditor's report, a report expressing an opinion on whether the independence of the auditors or audit firms has been jeopardised. This report must contain a reasoned evaluation of each and every one of the aforementioned additional services rendered, as referred to in the previous point, taken on an individual basis and as a whole, other than statutory audit services and on the independence regime or on the audit regulations. In compliance with recommendation no. 6 of the CGG, the Company posts the report of the Audit Committee on the independence of the external auditor on its corporate website in due course ahead of the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting; (iv) Ensure that the remuneration of the external auditor for their work does not compromise their quality or independence, and also setting an indicative limit on the fees that the auditor may receive annually for non-audit services. (v) Ensure that the company and the external auditor adhere to current regulations on the provision of non-audit services, the limits on the concentration of the auditor's business and, in general, other requirements designed to safeguard auditors' independence. As for relations with the auditors, Article 13 of the Audit Committee Regulations establishes that (i) any communications between the committee and the auditors will be fluent, ongoing and in accordance with the obligations under the governing regulations regarding the activity of the audit of accounts, without compromising the independence of the auditor or the effectiveness of the audit process and procedures; (ii) any communication with the auditor must be planned in a schedule of annual meetings, where most of these are not to be attended by the Company's management; and (iii) the Audit Committee shall regularly receive information on the audit process from the auditors and specifically on any differences that may arise between the auditors and the Company's management.

When the audit has been finalised the Committee will review, along with the external auditor, any significant findings brought to light from these tasks, as well as the content of its mandatory reports.

Likewise, and to ensure the independence of the external auditors, the Company has an internal Procedure for Engaging the Services of the Accounts Auditor. The entire CAF Group must follow and comply with this procedure.

According to this procedure, the Audit Committee must approve, prior to their arrangement, any non-audit services requested from the audit firm of the CAF Group or other entities in its network, so as to verify that the services would not compromise the auditor's independence.

Before any request is relayed to the Committee, the Company's Corporate Finance Department and Internal Audit function check that the services requested are not prohibited under Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 of 16 April 2014.

In this regard, it should be noted that, without prejudice to applicable legal provisions, the Committee has prudently, and to protect the Company's good name, set a limit on the fees to be received by the statutory auditor for non-audit services. This limit is more restrictive than that provided for in Article 4.2 of Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 and Article 41.1 of Spanish Audit Law 22/2015. More precisely, this limit is 50% of the average audit fee for the last three years, i.e. below the legal limit of 70%.

With reference to fiscal year 2023:

- The Audit Committee met with the external auditors, Ernst & Young, SL. (E&Y), twice in 2023, without E&Y reporting on issues that could put their independence at risk.

- On 23 February 2023, the external auditors, submitted to the Committee the external confirmation of its independence in relation to the financial information pertaining to 2022. In that document, the auditor confirmed that they had implemented internal policies and procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that the audit firm and its staff had maintained independence to the extent required by applicable law and regulations.

- On 23 February 2023, the same Committee approved the report on the independence of the Company's auditors, concluding that no aspects had been identified that called into question their compliance with prevailing regulations for the auditing of accounts in terms of auditor independence. In accordance with the provisions of Recommendation No 6 CGG, the Company published this report on its corporate website well in advance of the date of the 2023 Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

- On the same date the Committee issued its report on the evaluation of the external auditor, which, among other parameters, assessed its independence, reaching favourable conclusions.

- Finally, the Committee has encouraged the attendance of the external auditor at full meetings of the Board to report on issues of interest in their audit work. This took place at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 19 December 2023.

C.1.31 Indicate whether the company changed its external auditor during the year. If so, identify the incoming and outgoing auditors:

- Yes
 No

If there were any disagreements with the outgoing auditor, explain their content:

- Yes
 No

C.1.32 Indicate whether the audit firm performs any non-audit work for the company and/or its group and, if so, state the amount of fees it received for such work and express this amount as a percentage of the total fees invoiced to the company and/or its group for audit work:

- Yes
 No

	Company	Group Companies	Total
Amount invoiced for non-audit services (thousand euros)	72	80	152

	Company	Group Companies	Total
Amount invoiced for non-audit services/Amount invoiced for audit work (in %)	39.29	9.18	14.42

All non-audit services provided to the CAF Group by the external auditor and its organisation in the financial year under review were duly approved by the Audit Committee within the framework of the procedure described above. More precisely:

- On 19 December 2022, the Audit Committee verified that the services included in the proposal for non-audit services for the year 2023: (i) were reasonable; (ii) were permitted under the Audit Law; and (iii) were below the maximum limit provided for in Article 4.2 of Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 and Article 41.1 of the Spanish Audit Law 22/2015, as well as the more restrictive limit set by the Committee itself in the interests of prudence, at 50% of the average audit fee for the last three years.

- Subsequently, on 18 December 2023, Internal Audit presented a comparison to the Audit Committee of the approved budget for 2023 and the actual fees incurred for these services, verifying that the estimated amounts had not been exceeded and that no unapproved services had been arranged. The Audit Committee was requested to approve an increase in the amount of fees related to required tax certificates and the review of interim financial information of a subsidiary, which was unanimously agreed upon.

As the system does not allow decimals in the appropriate section, the Amount of non-audit work (thousands of euros) has been rounded to 152: the exact figure is 152.37 (thousands of euros).

C.1.33 Indicate whether the auditors' report on the financial statements for the preceding year contains a qualified opinion or reservations. If so, indicate the reasons given to shareholders at the general meeting by the chairman of the audit committee to explain the content and extent of the qualified opinion or reservations.

Yes

No

C.1.34 Indicate the number of consecutive years for which the current audit firm has been auditing the company's individual and/or consolidated financial statements. Also, indicate the number of years audited by the current audit firm as a percentage of the total number of years in which the financial statements have been audited:

Number of consecutive years	3	3
	Individual	Consolidated
Number of years audited by the current audit firm/number of years in which the company has been audited (in %)	6.52	13.04

C.1.35 Indicate whether there is a procedure for directors to be sure of having the information necessary to prepare the meetings of the governing bodies with sufficient time:

Yes

No

Explanation of procedure

The Board approves, at its December meetings, the Board calendar for next year, so that the Directors know the dates of meetings early enough to prepare some of the subjects to be dealt with on them as a guiding plan is established on the subjects to be addressed in every Board Meeting. There are at least eight meetings per year, with at least one meeting held every quarter, with sufficient time in between to prepare and scrutinise the necessary information. Regular Board meetings must be announced at least five days in advance, although in practice this is done earlier. The call also includes the meeting's agenda, and the documents that must be previously reviewed by the directors in sufficient time ahead of the meeting. In any case, the Directors have the recognised right to request all the information they reasonably require about the Company and its group in furtherance of their duties. Such right to information should be channelled via the Chairman of the Board who, with the assistance of the Secretary to this end, shall facilitate the information, identify the Company's appropriate interlocutors or decide on the suitable measures for the requested inspection or examination. The rights of Directors to receive information are set down in Article 20 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors.

C.1.36 Indicate whether the company has established rules obliging directors to inform the Board of any circumstances, whether or not related to their actions in the company itself, that might harm the company's standing and reputation, tendering their resignation where appropriate. If so, provide details:

Yes
 No

Explain the rules

Pursuant to Article 18 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, directors must tender their resignation from their position of director in certain situations, especially if they are prosecuted for an alleged criminal offence or when they are subject to disciplinary proceedings for serious or very serious misconduct by the supervisory authorities. Similarly, directors shall inform the Board and, where appropriate, resign, when situations arise that affect them, whether or not related to their own actions at the Company, that could damage the Company's good name and reputation. This will apply in particular if they become embroiled in any criminal proceedings in which they are under investigation or otherwise party to the proceedings.

The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become apprised of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the measures to be adopted. All of this will be disclosed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special justifying circumstances, which must be recorded in the minutes. The foregoing is without prejudice to the information that the Company must release, if required, at the time of the adoption of the corresponding measures. When a director resigns from their position before their tenure expires, they must sufficiently explain their reasons or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion on the reasons for removal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter sent to all members of the Board of Directors.

C.1.37 Indicate whether, apart from such special circumstances as may have arisen and been duly minuted the Board of Directors has been notified or has otherwise become aware of any situation affecting a director, whether or not related to his or her actions in the company itself, that might harm the company's standing and reputation:

Yes
 No

C.1.38 Detail any material agreements entered into by the company that come into force, are modified or are terminated in the event of a change in control of the company following a public takeover bid, and their effects.

There are no such agreements.

C.1.39 Identify individually as regards directors, and in aggregate form in other cases, and provide details of any agreements between the company and its directors, executives or employees containing indemnity or golden parachute clauses in the event of resignation or dismissal without due cause or termination of employment as a result of a takeover bid or any other type of transaction.

Number of beneficiaries

Type of beneficiary	Description of agreement
Executive Director	Termination benefit due to termination ordered by the Company for reasons not related with the Director

Indicate whether, beyond the cases established by legislation, these agreements have to be communicated and/or authorised by the governing bodies of the company or its group. If so, specify the procedures, the cases concerned and the nature of the bodies responsible for their approval or communication:

	Board of Directors	General Shareholders' Meeting
Body authorising the severance clauses	√
	Yes	No
Are these clauses notified to the General Shareholders' Meeting?	√

The content of these clauses are shown in the Annual Report on Director Remuneration, which is subject to advisory voting at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

C.2. Committees of the Board of Directors

At least a part of these meetings with the internal auditor or financial auditor must take place without the presence of company management, so that the specific matters that arose in the reviews performed may be discussed with them exclusively.

Likewise, the Committee will meet whenever required to do so by the Board of Directors (Article 5 of the Audit Committee Regulations). The call notice shall be issued, at least five days in advance, by the Committee Secretary, in accordance with the Chair's instructions, to each of the members by email or by any other channel that provides proof of receipt, unless the meeting is called on an exceptional basis due to an emergency by the Chair. The call notice shall include the meeting's agenda items. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Audit Committee may also deliberate on and adopt resolutions regarding other matters not included on the agenda. Exceptionally, when circumstances so require, Committee meetings may be held by conference call, video call or any other means of remote communication provided that it guarantees the identities and participation of the attendants in real time. In this case, the meeting shall be understood to have been held at the registered office. Likewise, the President of the Committee may authorise the attendance of one or more Directors at the meeting through the use of remote connection systems that guarantee the identity and participation of the Directors, who for all purposes will be deemed to be attendees at the Committee meeting.

In all cases, the Chairman of the Committee shall, acting through the Secretary, channel and provide the necessary information and documentation to the other members of the Committee sufficiently in advance so that they are able to analyse it prior to the meeting in question (Article 6 of the Audit Committee Regulations). D. RELATED-PARTY AND INTRAGROUP TRANSACTIONS

- D.1. Explain, where appropriate, the procedure and competent bodies for the approval of operations with related parties and intragroup, indicating the criteria and general internal rules of the entity that regulate the abstention obligations of the affected directors or shareholders and detailing the procedures
- Internal reporting and periodic control procedures established by the company in relation to those related-party transactions whose approval has been delegated by the board of directors.

Pursuant to the provisions of its Regulations, the Board of Directors is responsible, on a non-delegable basis, for approving, subject to a prior report from the Audit Committee, transactions of the Company or companies in its group that qualify as related party transactions, unless such approval falls within the remit of the General Shareholders' Meeting and without prejudice to the possible delegation by the Board of such powers in the situations and under the terms prescribed by law and in the aforementioned Regulations. (Article 5 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

Regarding the approval of related party transactions and the abstention obligations of the affected directors and shareholders, the Board Regulations explicitly state that the power to approve related party transactions whose amount or value is 10% or more of the Company's total assets according to the latest annual balance sheet approved by the Company shall be vested in the General Shareholders' Meeting. When the General Meeting is called to decide on a related party transaction, the shareholder concerned shall be deprived of the right to vote, except where the motion has been approved by the Board of Directors without the majority of independent directors voting against. However, where applicable, the rule of the reversal of the burden of proof provided for in the Capital Companies Act shall apply. The Board of Directors shall have the power to approve all other related party transactions and this power may not be delegated. In accordance with the Capital Companies Act, the affected director, or the director representing or related to the affected shareholder, must abstain from taking part in the deliberations and voting on the corresponding motion. However, directors who represent or are related to the parent company on the governing body of the subsidiary listed company should not abstain. However, if they do not abstain and if their vote was decisive in passing the resolution, the rule of reversal of the burden of proof shall apply on substantially the same terms as those provided for in the Capital Companies Act for the approval of related party transactions by the General Shareholders' Meeting. The approval of a related party transaction by the General Meeting or by the Board shall be subject to a prior report by the Audit Committee. In its report, the Committee must assess whether the transaction is fair and reasonable in the eyes of the Company and, if applicable, of the shareholders other than the related party, and give an account of the assumptions on which the assessment is based and the methods used. The Directors involved may not take part in the preparation of the report.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may delegate the approval of the following related party transactions:

- a) transactions between companies forming part of the same group that are carried out in the ordinary course of business and under market conditions;
- b) transactions entered into under contracts whose standard terms and conditions are applied en masse to a large number of customers; are at prices or rates established generally by the party acting as supplier of the goods or services in question; and whose amount does not exceed 0.5 per cent of the Company's revenues.

In such cases, the approval of any related party transactions that may have been delegated will not require a prior report from the Audit Committee. However, the Board of Directors shall establish an internal reporting and periodic control procedure for such transactions, in which the Audit Committee shall be involved and shall verify the fairness and transparency of such transactions and, as the case may be, compliance with the legal criteria applicable to the above exceptions (Article 29 Regulations of the Board of Directors).

In furtherance of the foregoing, on 16 December 2021 the Board of Directors, following a report from the Audit Committee, unanimously resolved to delegate, jointly and severally, to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and to the Chief Financial and Strategy Officer, the approval of the transactions described in Sections a) and b) above.

At the same meeting, the Board approved the CAF Group's Related Party Transactions Manual (the "Manual"), which sets out the basic rules governing the management of the Group's related party transactions. In particular, the Manual addresses:

(i) the procedure for approving related party transactions, in accordance with the following key steps:

1. Submission of a related party transaction proposal to the Chief Financial and Strategy Officer, accompanied by the corresponding documentary justification.
2. Analysis the type of transaction proposed and identification of the body responsible for its approval.

• In the case of a potential related party transaction subject to approval by the Board or the Committee: relaying the justified proposal to the Audit Committee so that it may issue its report on the matter.

Relaying the proposal and the Committee's report to the Board for approval, or referring the matter to the General Meeting for a decision by shareholders, assuming the meeting is competent to decide on the matter.

• In the case of delegable related party transactions: the delegated person shall assess and determine whether the objective requirements for approval of the transaction have been met. No report of the Audit Committee will be required in such cases. However, the reasons for approval or rejection of the transaction must be duly documented for the purpose of reporting to the Audit Committee as part of the periodic reporting and control procedure described in the following section.

D.2. Give individual details of operations that are significant due to their amount or of importance due to their subject matter carried out between the company or its subsidiaries and shareholders holding 10% or more of the voting rights or who are represented on the board of directors of the company, indicating which has been the competent body for its approval and if any affected shareholder or director has abstained. The CAF Group holds non-controlling or jointly controlled interests in companies engaged in concessions for the operation of railway operating systems, the supply of fleet and subsequent maintenance, as well as the leasing of railway equipment. The CAF Group's operations with these companies involve supply of the fleet, maintenance and leasing of railway equipment and material. The CAF Group's operations with these companies involve supply of the fleet, performance of turnkey projects and maintenance of railway equipment and material. It also has various financial loans in place that are consistent with the typical financing structure for these types of concession or leasing companies. These transactions are part of the ordinary business of the CAF Group and are carried out under normal market conditions. Information on CAF's stakes in these companies is included in Notes 2.f and 9.a to the 2023 consolidated financial statements. Any conflict of interest should be mentioned in the Notes to the Financial Statements. The Board Regulations also regulate in detail the obligations of non-competition and avoidance of conflicts of interest, and establish a series of prohibited conducts for directors, as well as the consequences that might arise in the event of non-compliance. E. RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

E.1. Explain the scope of the company's financial and non-financial risk management and control system, including tax risk.

CAF Group's Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System works in a continuous manner and is managed at corporate level for all businesses and geographic areas in which the Group operates.

The undertaking of the Board of Directors' of CAF in establishing the mechanisms and basic principles for adequate control and risk management is reflected in the General Risk Control and Management Policy, whose essential principles rest upon the previously mentioned Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System. This policy covers part of the Group's internal regulations and can be found in the Corporate Policies section at www.caf.net.

The General Risk Control and Management Policy covers all the companies comprising the CAF Group in all jurisdictions where CAF operates, being applicable to all Group employees. In those non-CAF Group companies, the Company seeks to ensure that the principles, guidelines and risk limits are consistent with those established through this General Risk Control and Management Policy.

The purpose of the aforementioned Policy is to establish the basic principles and guidelines for the control and management of risks of any nature affecting the Company and the CAF Group, through the identification of the main risks and by employing appropriate internal control and information systems, while conducting periodic monitoring on the performance of these mechanisms.

It should be noted that through the General Risk Control and Management Policy, CAF Group is committed to developing all its capabilities so that all types of risks are properly identified, measured, managed, prioritised and controlled. In this regard, the Audit Committee is tasked with ensuring, on an ongoing basis, compliance with the General Risk Control and Management Policy and that the integrated system in place operates properly.

In practice, the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System is based on a range of strategic and operational actions in order to manage risks and meet the objectives set by the Board of Directors. The diversity and complexity of the activities carried out by the Group carry a variety of risks and the Company defines basic guidelines and instructions to ensure standard operating procedures at each of the divisions so as to ensure an adequate level of internal control.

The Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System of the CAF Group is an interlinked system of rules, processes, procedures, controls and information systems where the global exposure is determined after assuming all the risks that the Company is exposed to and it takes into consideration their impacts on mitigation. This system allows the consolidation of the risk exposures of the business divisions and areas of the Group and their valuation, as well as the preparation of the corresponding management information for decision making in terms of risk and expected profitability, which is subject to a continuous improvement process that enables it to be strengthened over time.

To respond to the need for global and homogeneous risk management, CAF Group assumes a corporate risk control and assessment model under the following basic assumptions:

- Defining maximum risk limits that can be assumed for each business according to its characteristics and expected profitability.
- Establishing procedures for the identification, analysis, evaluation, treatment, monitoring, control and reporting of the various risks.
- Coordination and communication so that the corporate procedures and the different businesses are consistent with this General Risk Control and Management Policy and the Group's Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System.

E.2. Identify the bodies within the company responsible for preparing and executing the Financial and Non-financial Risk Management and Control System, including tax risk.

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for establishing the General Risk Control and Management Policy, including tax risks, as well as supervising the internal information and control systems.

In addition, as provided for in its Regulations, the Audit Committee is the body responsible for supervising and evaluating the financial and non-financial risk management and control systems related to the Company and, where appropriate, the Group, including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks or those related to corruption, as well as supervising the management of the internal control and the Company risks.

The Executive Committee is the company's most senior executive body and as such it is responsible for ensuring the effective implementation of the General Risk Control and Management Policy and understanding the main aspects regarding its operation and control.

The Risk Management Function under the direct supervision of the Audit Committee is responsible for the following tasks:

- To ensure the proper functioning of the comprehensive risk control and management system and, in particular, that all major risks affecting the Company are adequately identified, managed and valued,
- Actively participating in drawing up the risk strategy and in important decisions regarding risk management and
- Ensure that the comprehensive risk control and management system adequately mitigates risks within the framework of the policy defined by the Board of Directors.

Moreover, CAF has several persons responsible for Regulatory compliance and, in particular a Corporate Fiscal Area, whose role includes: (i) applying the Tax Policy determined and approved by the Board of Directors; and (ii) ensuring compliance with the principles of action in tax matters set out in the Tax Policy approved by the Board of Directors, which expressly include the prevention and reduction, as far as possible, of tax risks.

In addition, the remit of CAF's Internal Audit function includes, among others, the assurance of risks to which the Company is exposed and, for that purpose, it is involved in the examination and assessment of control systems and procedures and risk mitigation processes.

E.3. Indicate the main financial and non-financial risks, including tax risks, as well as those deriving from corruption (with the scope of these risks as set out in Royal Decree Law 18/2017), to the extent that these may affect the achievement of business objectives.

The most important risks facing the Group may be classified into the following categories:

Strategic risks: these being risks stemming from the uncertainty of the macroeconomic and geopolitical environment, along with the inherent characteristics of the sector and markets where the Group operates, and the decisions adopted on strategic and technological plans.

Financial risks: arising from market fluctuations (financial and commodities markets), contractual relations with third parties (customers, debtors) and counterparties related to investments in financial assets and financial liabilities (banks, investors). The subcategories of risks that are included are as follows:

Market risk, which includes the following risks:

Interest rate risk: risk of variations in interest rates that might give rise to changes in the Group's profit or loss and the value of its assets and liabilities.

Foreign currency risk: risk arising from changes in the exchange rates of currencies with an effect on future transactions and the valuation of assets and liabilities denominated in currency.

Commodity price risk: risk arising from changes in prices and market variables relating to commodities required in the businesses' supply chain.

Credit risk: it is the risk of insolvency or bankruptcy or possible non-payment of quantifiable monetary obligations by the counterparts to which the Group has effectively granted net credit and are pending liquidation or collection.

Liquidity and financing risk: in relation to liabilities, it is the risk linked to the impossibility of carrying out transactions or to non-compliance with obligations arising from operating or financial activities due to lack of funds or access to financial markets, whether derived from a decrease in the company's credit quality (rating) or other causes. In relation to assets, it is the risk of being unable to find at any given time parties to purchase an asset at the arm's length price or to obtain an arm's length price.

For more information on the financial risks, see the section on "Financial Risk Management" of the Notes to the Financial Statements.

Legal Risks: arising from the preparation and performance of various types of agreements and obligations (commercial, administrative, intellectual property, etc.) and the possible contingencies arising therefrom. Risks relating to legal proceedings, administrative procedures and claims are also included.

Operating Risks: inherent to all Group activities, products, systems and processes that lead to financial losses and damage in the Company image due to human/technological error, inadequate/defective internal processes or the intervention of external agents.

Corporate Governance Risks: arising from potential non-compliance with the Group's corporate governance system, which governs the design, integration and operation of the governance bodies and their relations with the Group's stakeholders and is rooted in the Group's commitment to ethical principles, best practices and transparency as the Group seeks to defend its interests and create sustainable value.

Compliance and Regulatory Risks: arising from the breach of applicable national and international regulations and laws irrespective of the activity in question, included in the following large blocks: (i) Commercial and Competition (market abuse, corporate obligations and securities market regulations, antitrust and unfair competition), (ii) Criminal (prevention of crimes, including those arising from corruption), (iii) Employment, (iv) Tax and (v) Administrative (including personal data protection regulations, environmental laws, etc.).

The Non-Financial Information Statement-Sustainability Report for the year ending in 2023 delves into the different types of risks listed previously. In particular, there was an emphasis on the risks relating to human rights, society, the environment, people and the fight against corruption and bribery.

E.4. Indicate whether the entity has risk tolerance levels, including for tax risk.

The risk tolerance level established at corporate level is understood at CAF as the willingness to assume a certain risk level, insofar as it allows value creation and business development, achieving an adequate balance between growth, performance and risk.

The CAF Group presents an overall prudent risk profile with a low tolerance level, in which the objective of guaranteeing the continuity over time of its activity and the sustainable growth, and therefore of its value contribution to its shareholders and to the company in general, prevails.

In order to achieve this risk profile, the Group is based on:

- A prudent policy in relation to bid submissions in tender processes, applying predetermined Risk-Reward thresholds in the decision-making process.
- A suitable risk management infrastructure in terms of governance and availability of material and human resources.
- Search for positioning in high growth segments, in geographies that are classified as strategic and in products in relation to which CAF has existing expertise and experience that enable value generation for the Company, maintaining in all cases the desired profitability and cash generation levels.

The level of risk is defined as the product of probability and impact. Both probability of occurrence and impact are assessed on a five-level scale, and uniform criteria are used to determine each level in each of the axes. The possible results of the combination of both are:

Very low and low level risks may be accepted and a Control or Action Plan may not be needed in order to manage them.

Moderate-level risks should be carefully analysed in order to determine whether or not they are acceptable and, if appropriate, to establish a Control or Action Plan that brings the risk down to a low and therefore acceptable level.

High and very high level risks will require adequate administration and management and a formal Action Plan must be drawn up and then monitored according to its criticality, either by the Risk Management Function or directly by the Executive Committee and the Audit Committee.

Additionally, the risk assessment considers the different types of risks to which the Group may be exposed. Risk tolerance thresholds are generally defined, although largely in relation to Operational Business Risks. If these thresholds are exceeded, new or existing Controls or Actions Plans would be triggered. As for Operational Business Risks, tolerance is defined on the basis of the main figures of the businesses/projects.

With regard to other risks such as financial and strategic risks, a level of tolerance is proposed in terms of their economic impact at corporate level. Notably, there is a principle of zero tolerance towards the commission of illegal acts and fraud.

With regard to tax risks, the Corporate Tax Policy expressly covers the basic principles regarding tax matters for the Group, including, to the fullest extent possible, the prevention and reduction of tax risks while carrying on its activities and maintaining a prudent risk profile at all times. The management of fiscal risks is carried out within the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System.

E.5. Indicate which financial and non-financial risks, including tax risks, have materialised during the year.

During 2023 no material or extraordinary risks materialised, beyond those included in the Directors' Report and the Notes to the Financial Statements.

The main risks that may affect the achievement of business goals are managed actively by the organisation, while minimising any adverse risks faced by the Group. In general terms, the Group's business and regional diversification assists in reducing any material impacts on the Company's equity due to risk exposure.

The exchange rate risk to which the Company is exposed due to its international operations is managed in accordance with the Market Risk Policy approved by the Board of Directors, which provides for different strategies aimed at reducing said risk, such as, for example, the establishment of financial or natural hedges, the constant monitoring of exchange rate fluctuations and other complementary measures.

The Israel-Palestine and Ukraine-Russia conflicts represent a risk of uncertainty in the markets in which the Group operates, affecting various aspects such as the execution of long-term contracts and their monitoring, possible embargoes or sanctions on companies operating in those markets, and possible additional disruptions along the supply chain. The current conflict is affecting the pace of execution of several projects in Israel. Even so, the Group maintains continuous communications with its clients, working collaboratively to address the problems arising from this situation.

Although an improvement in the trend of prices and interest rates is observed, the supply chain continues to be part of the focus in business. That is why actions such as the signing of framework contracts with key suppliers of equipment and supplies continue to be implemented, ensuring price indexation for the medium term. In parallel, actions continue to be developed to alleviate the increase in prices and shortages of components.

The contingencies managed in the realm of Compliance are part of the overall risks supervised within the system. Details of the material aspects relating to 2023 are set out in Note 26 to the Consolidated Financial Statements and in the Non-Financial Information Statement – Sustainability Report.

E.6. Explain the response and oversight plans for the company's main risks, including tax risks, as well as the procedures followed by the company in order to ensure that the Board of Directors responds to any new challenges that arise.

CAF's Comprehensive Risk Management System is based on preparing Controls and Action Plans through the appropriate corrective measures, using the META strategy.

Based on the criteria established by the CAF Group and the META analysis methodology, 4 possible strategies for risk management have been defined:

- Mitigate: The risk is accepted but Action Plans are implemented to reduce it.
- Avoid: It is considered that the conditions are not acceptable by the CAF group, so the risk must be eliminated (Zero Tolerance).
- Transfer: It is considered that there are measures that allow transferring the risk to a third party.
- Assume: It is considered that there are no measures to help reduce the risk, so the risk is accepted in its entirety.

In the case of non-manageable risks that raise the risk profile above the tolerance level, contingency plans to remediate the project in progress or in a previous stage are evaluated in order to decide on whether or not to submit the corresponding bid.

The Risk Management Department, under the direct supervision of the Audit Committee, is in charge of ensuring the proper functioning of the System. In particular, it ensures that all relevant risks that affect the Company are properly identified, managed and evaluated, and that these risks are suitably mitigated within the framework of the Policy approved by the Board of Directors.

At different intervals during the year, the Risk Management Department reviews the level of risk and compliance with the unique risk management methodology. On a monthly basis, the Risk Management Department meets with the different business units to form a picture of the business risk situation. And on a quarterly basis, it looks at the situation risks managed at the corporate level. Lastly, every six months, this same department prepares a global risk report on the Group for the Audit Committee.

In 2023, the Audit Committee received updated risk reports from the head of the Risk Management department at its May and November meetings, with the head of the area attending the first meeting in person. The presentation included a breakdown of the level of the Group's main risks (see Section E.3), differentiating between risks managed at i) corporate and ii) business unit level.

In November, the head of the Tax Function, as the person in charge of the control and management of Group tax compliance risks, also presented to the Committee its annual report on compliance with the principles of action in tax matters established by the Board in the Tax Policy, describing the fiscal developments and their impact on the Group.

The head of Internal Audit reported periodically to the Committee during this financial year on the degree of compliance and suitability of the Group's internal control and on the monitoring of the main financial and tax risks. The matters dealt with by the Audit Committee are reported at the next meeting of the Board of Directors.

F. INTERNAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL REPORTING PROCESS

Describe the mechanisms forming your company's Internal risk management and Control systems relating to the process of publishing Financial Reporting (ICFR) of the company.

F.1. The entity's control environment

Report on at least the following, describing their principal features:

- F.1.1 The bodies and/or departments that are responsible for: (i) the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective ICFR system; (ii) its implementation; and (iii) its supervision.

CAF's Board of Directors is the body responsible for having and maintaining a proper and effective Financial Information Internal Control System. The Audit Committee, further to the powers delegated by the Board of Directors, is the body responsible for supervising, inter alia, the process of preparation and presentation and the integrity of the regulated financial and non-financial reporting, and the information systems and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, in particular ICFR. It also monitors the risk management systems or the systems and mechanisms linked to the Company's internal codes of conduct, as well as the internal audit services, and liaises with the auditors or audit firms on any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected during the audit. These functions are described in the Regulations of the Audit Committee.

The Internal Audit Department is mandated by the Audit Committee to effectively supervise the Financial Information Internal Control System through its single and independent oversight role, in line with the professional quality regulations and standards, which shall contribute to good corporate governance and ensure that the financial information has been prepared in a reliable manner.

The Economic-Financial and Strategy Management is the area responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance over time of an adequate and effective internal control system over financial information.

- F.1.2 Indicate whether the following exist, especially in relation to the drawing up of financial information:

- Departments and/or mechanisms in charge of: (i) the design and review of the organisational structure; (ii) clear definition of lines of responsibility and authority with an appropriate distribution of tasks and functions; and (iii) ensuring that adequate procedures exist for their proper dissemination throughout the entity.

The Executive Director and the head of Human Resources are tasked with designing and reviewing the organisational structure and defining the lines of responsibility and authority for each business unit and subsidiary.

With regard to ICFR, the main tasks and controls to be carried out and supervised, and those persons responsible for them, are clearly defined in the processes determined as critical for the generation of financial information. Therefore, the lines of responsibility and authority are clearly defined in all cases. The breakdown of functions of the tasks considered incompatible is also documented for these processes.

- Code of conduct, the body approving this, degree of dissemination and instruction, principles and values covered (stating whether there is specific mention of record keeping and preparation of financial information), body charged with analysing breaches and proposing corrective actions and sanctions.

At its meeting in December 2023, the Board of Directors of CAF approved the review of the corporate Code of Conduct (the initial version of which dates from 27 July 2011), reaffirming the commitments made in the initial approval of the Code and updating its content to align it with current best practices in business ethics.

The Code of Conduct is, therefore, a declaration at the highest level and a guarantee of the CAF Group's leadership in, and commitment to, ethics, sustainability and good governance. The Code provides the basis for policies and standards of internal action.

The general principles of the CAF Code of Conduct are mandatory rules of conduct and ethical standards based on scrupulous respect for the law, human rights, public freedoms and fundamental rights, the principles of equal treatment non-discrimination, protection from the exploitation of child labour and other principles contained in the international instruments it cites. In addition to the above, they are the minimum basis that must govern any business behavior or action of CAF and its value chain.

With respect to financial information, the Code of Conduct includes a specific commitment to complete transparency, paying particular attention to ensuring that the information is prepared in a truthful manner and is recorded and disclosed to the market as required by applicable legislation. Likewise, the CAF Group seeks to faithfully and transparently reflect the reality of the Group, reporting in an integrated manner on all aspects of sustainability required by applicable regulations.

This enables shareholders, investors, advisors, analysts and other stakeholders to form objective opinions about the Group in line with best practices, applying the provisions of CAF's General Communication Policy.

The CAF Group complies fully with legal obligations in relation to regular public information, always respecting applicable regulations on inside and other material information, in accordance with regulations on securities market and investment services.

The CAF Group Code of Conduct has been available on the corporate website (www.caf.net) since its approval, in an easily identifiable section.

Ongoing training initiatives to raise awareness and promote Compliance standards continued in 2023.

Although the Code of Conduct and the Crime Prevention Manual have been communicated to all employees, specific training was launched in the year in accordance with plans to meet the needs of different recipients within the Group. In 2023, 90% of the people included in the training plan in this subject have completed it. Since the start of the plan, more than 8,000 people have been trained (of which, 1,045 in 2023 and 623 in 2022). Anti-corruption training is included in this training plan.

Similarly, there is a system in place for training new employees. These programmes are included in the on-boarding plans for new employees. Training materials are constantly revised and updated.

Additionally, 100% of the CAF Group's project partners, in all the regions in which it operates, are informed of the existence and obligation of compliance on their part with the General Principles of the CAF Code of Conduct.

In furtherance of the above, the Corporate Compliance System (of which the Code of Conduct is its basic standard as indicated above) is intended for the prevention, detection and early management of compliance risks.

The Compliance Function, which has autonomous powers of supervision and control, is the CAF Group's body responsible for the supervision and operation of the corporate Compliance System as a whole, the direct management of some areas (such as business ethics and due diligence in general, human rights and international sanctions, anti-corruption, competition, criminal compliance, market abuse and protection of personal data, although the latter is partially outsourced to a Data Protection Officer).

In addition, this function is also entrusted with the supervision of other areas managed by other managers. It also coordinates with other corporate functions with internal control and risk management responsibilities.

In particular, the Compliance Function will be the internal body responsible for monitoring, supervising and controlling the application of the Code of Conduct, periodically evaluating its effectiveness and adopting appropriate measures to resolve any deficiencies.

The members of the Compliance Function are appointed, replaced and dismissed by the Board of Directors or by the Chief Executive Officer, and they report their activity to the CAF Board of Directors, either directly or through a report to the relevant Board Committee, depending on the nature, scope and content of the report.

In addition, the Compliance Function has a corporate department to which it delegates certain powers to ensure the correct management of recurring compliance matters and coordination with the Compliance Officers appointed in the business units, subsidiaries or headquarters of the CAF Group or in geographical areas of those jurisdictions where this is required by local legislation, or where it is advisable given the size or characteristics of the subsidiary or headquarters.

For more details on the Corporate Compliance System, you can consult section 7.2 of the Non-Financial Information Statement - Sustainability Report included in the management report.

- Whistleblowing channel, allowing for the disclosure to the Audit Committee of irregularities of a financial and accounting nature, in addition to possible breaches of the code of conduct and irregular activities within the organisation. Such disclosures may be made on a confidential or anonymous basis. The rights of the whistleblower and the reported party are respected in all cases.

The CAF Group has implemented an Internal Information System that brings together all its reporting channels. This IT tool is the preferred channel for reporting actions and omissions that constitute serious or very serious criminal or administrative offences (including breaches of European Union law), as well as breaches of the Code of Conduct and other rules in the CAF Group's Internal Regulatory System.

This System allows communications to be made both nominally and anonymously and guarantees the protection measures established by law for informants, related third parties and people affected by the communication.

The main regulations governing the Internal Information System are the Internal Information System Policy and the Corporate Procedure for Management of the Internal Information System, which were approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting on 5 May 2023, after consultation with the legal representatives of the workforce.

Among the System documentation is the detail of the existing information channels for each legal entity of the CAF Group and the person responsible for receiving communications, as well as the applicable Privacy Policy.

Both the Internal Information System and the System documentation remain publicly accessible on the corporate website.

The reporting channels were continuously monitored in 2023 and reviewed regularly to ensure they were working effectively. The Internal Information System has, so far, registered 13 cases.

All complaints received have been the subject of internal investigation.

The Audit Committee is responsible for supervision of the Internal Codes of Conduct and the Internal Information System. The Compliance Function approves at least one annual activity report, which includes information on the various areas of Compliance and significant risks.

All of this is detailed in greater detail in section 7.2.5 of the Non-Financial Information Statement-Sustainability Report included in the Management Report.

- Training and periodic refresher programmes for personnel involved in the preparation and revision of financial information, as well as in the assessment of the ICFR system, covering at least accounting standards, auditing, internal control and risk management.

The Group has a corporate training budget and a training plans are designed at least every two years. Training needs are detected and activities for each department are scheduled as part of this plan.

Staff performance assessments are held every year and an individual development and training plan is set out for every employee included in the Training Plan. In addition, refresher courses taught by external specialists are held at least on an annual basis so as to ensure staff remain up-to-date on regulatory changes that can affect the preparation of the financial statements and webinars presented by experts on the matter are attended.

It is important to note that the recommendations issued by regulatory bodies such as ESMA and CNMV are also reviewed annually when drawing up the financial statements, with a focus on regulatory developments and other key economic circumstances and events.

The main indicators in relation to CAF, S.A.'s economic and financial training programmes in support of the businesses in 2023 are:

- Number of participants in these training actions: 2,383.
- Number of training hours received: 8,053 hours.

It should be noted that in the 2023 financial year, a significant number of training hours for workers related to the new ERP being implemented.

Apart from general training, the main training activities focus on technical updating in relation to economic and financial aspects (such as legislation, tax and risks).

F.2. Assessment of risks in financial reporting

Report on at least the following:

F.2.1 The main characteristics of the risk identification process, including risks of error and fraud, as regards:

- Whether the process exists and is documented.

The basic mechanisms and principles for adequate risk control and management are reflected in the General Risk Control and Management Policy, on whose basic principles the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System is based.

The Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System assumes a centralised risk control and management model that covers all areas of its activity and integrates their vision into the management of the Organisation. This model establishes that every member of the organisation is involved in the process with the aim of integrating it into the company's culture.

CAF adopts a robust three-line system to organise this global management and ensure its consistency, in line with the best practices and recommendations in the international ISO 31000 and COSO ERM standards.

Consistently with section E, the first line is built around risk management in the day-to-day activity of the company and each of its businesses.

The second line comprises the assurance functions that control and supervise risk. There is a complementary assurance function for the specific case of the ICFR. This is aligned with the premises of the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System and undertaken by the Economic-Financial and Strategy Department. This is independent of the business functions, promoting strict segregation of duties between the area that assumes the risk and the area responsible for supervising it.

This area defines the critical processes associated with each of the accounts and significant breakdowns. Risks that could generate errors or fraud in the financial information are identified based on the potential impact of an error on the financial statements and the likelihood of the risk occurring.

The third line is the independent review of the first two lines and is carried out by the Internal Audit Function. Its remit includes assessing the effectiveness of the management, control and governance processes for the risk appetite and that they are being implemented correctly.

- Whether the process covers all the objectives of financial reporting, (existence and occurrence; completeness; valuation; presentation; disclosure and comparability; and rights and obligations), whether it is updated and if so how often.

At the beginning of each year, supported by projected financial information, the main control objectives and risks of error are analysed, estimating the likelihood and impact this would have on the financial information, This analysis includes the review of the routine financial reporting processes. During the year, the identified risk areas are followed up and updated, taking into account new significant events that have taken place during the period. In addition, the internal control system includes regular control activities focused on identifying new risk areas, such as meetings of CAF's Corporate Finance Department with the heads of business units and review meetings for the reported financial information.

- The existence of a process for identifying the scope of consolidation, taking into account, among other factors, the possible existence of complex corporate structures or special purpose vehicles.

At least quarterly, the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department receives from the Corporate Legal Department the corporate organisation chart of the Group, identifying the variations in the perimeter that exist in the period. All variations in the perimeter are analyzed by the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department.

- Whether the process takes into account the effects of other types of risk (operational, technological, financial, legal, tax, reputational, environmental, etc.) to the extent that they affect the financial statements.

The process takes into account all risks identifiable insofar as they affect the financial statements.

- The governing body within the company that supervises the process.

The Audit Committee is the body responsible for overseeing the regulated financial and related non-financial information preparation process and presentation, which includes the risk identification process.

F.3. Control activities

Report on whether the company has at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

F.3.1 Review and authorisation procedures for financial information and a description of the ICFR, to be disclosed to the securities markets, indicating those responsible, as well as documentation describing the flow of activity and controls (including those relating to the risk of fraud) of the various types of transactions that may materially affect the financial statements, including the procedure for the accounting close and the specific review of significant judgements, estimates, valuations and projections.

Certification of financial statements: The financial statements are certified by the CEO together with the Economic-Financial and Strategy Director. Prior to that, the information used to draw up the statements will have been validated by the senior employees involved in preparing the statements and control activities will have been carried out to minimise the risks of any error that may affect the financial reporting process.

The main financial reporting generation processes significantly affecting financial statements are documented and programmed. The financial reporting processes that are covered include the following:

- Consolidation and Reporting
- Accounting Close
- Remuneration of employed personnel Treasury Management
- Recognition of Income, Billing and Customers (for each type of activity)
- Inventories and purchases (for each type of activity)
- Investments
- Taxes
- Provisions
- Information systems

The risks of error that may affect the reliability of the financial information (including risks of error in relevant judgements, estimates, assessments and projections) have been identified for each of these processes, as have the control activities to mitigate those risks. A person is designated to implement and oversee each control activity, ensure that it is carried out in due course and gather all evidence needed to carry out the activity.

This system is updated on a continual basis and is adapted according to the risks identified.

F.3.2 Internal IT control policies and procedures (access security, control of changes, system operation, operational continuity and segregation of duties, among others) which support significant processes within the company relating to the preparation and publication of financial information.

The Management of Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) is a corporate process that falls under the CAF Group's Management Model. Its mission is to provide and manage services, supporting the Group's information technology and communication needs in any of the areas of business activity, enhancing the use of these technologies and providing an efficient and effective management over the available resources, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and assurances over the information.

The objectives of this process are to: Comply with the Corporate ICT development plan

Ensure the availability of information systems (availability)

Guarantee the security (confidentiality and integrity) of Information Systems

Promote the standardisation of systems

Improve the level of satisfaction of users of ICT systems

Develop the ICT corporate framework

The ICFR includes control activities that monitor the proper performance of the processes of Information Systems, in relation to:

Information Technology management

User management

Configuration management

Physical security management

Change management

Operational management and system control

Continuity management

Third-party management

Further highlights include the Information Security Management System (ISMS) that has been in place since 2017 in accordance with ISO 27001. The system has been certified since 2018 and was renewed in 2023 for the information systems managed by the Corporate Digital Department that support CAF's corporate processes. As a result of the implementation, a Security Committee has been created and a Security Manager designated, and the suppliers and personnel affected are required to read the Security Policy and expressly accept certain Terms and Conditions and a Best Practices Manual.

F.3.3 Internal control policies and procedures for overseeing the management of activities subcontracted to third parties, as well as of those aspects of assessment, calculation or valuation entrusted to independent experts, which may materially affect financial statements.

There is an Accounting and Financial Policies Manual applicable to all CAF, S.A. subsidiaries, which includes an approval and supervision policy for activities subcontracted to third parties in preparing the financial statements.

Likewise, according to the existing delegation of authority matrix, the hiring of independent experts to carry out significant calculations or valuations must be approved by the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department, to guarantee the suitability of the expert.

The main activities identified as having been subcontracted to third parties include the preparation of the payroll and tax returns of certain subsidiaries (areas considered to be low-risk and subsidiaries that cannot materially affect the Group's financial statements) and the subcontracting of services in the IT department (the effectiveness of which is monitored regularly). Furthermore, during the fiscal year 2023, the valuation of acquired assets and liabilities was contracted to independent third parties, according to IFRS 3 of business combinations. In these cases, the Company's policy is to resort to firms of renowned background and independence.

F.4. Information and communication

Report on whether the company has at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

- F.4.1 A specifically assigned function for defining and updating accounting policies (accounting policy area or department) and resolving doubts or conflicts arising from their interpretation, maintaining a free flow of information to those responsible for operations in the organisation, as well as an up-to-date accounting policy manual distributed to the business units through which the company operates.

The Corporate Economic-Administrative Department is responsible for preparing the consolidated financial statements and those of the parent company. Its tasks include the resolution of accounting queries for the rest of the Group companies with which the Company has a direct and fluid relationship through the designated persons in charge of control at each subsidiary and updating the Accounting and Financial Policies Manual. The Manual is available on CAF's internal portal.

- F.4.2 Mechanisms for capturing and preparing financial information in standardised formats for application and use by all units of the entity or group, and support its main financial statements and notes, as well as disclosures concerning ICFR system

Every year a schedule is drawn up of the information required to prepare the financial information for the following fiscal year.

The financial information of each subsidiary is reported directly to CAF, S.A.'s Finance Department, through an online tool with consistent reporting formats. The tool is used to gather the information supporting the consolidated financial statements, as well as the consolidated information contained in the notes to the financial statements, and to aggregate and consolidate the information reported.

The Corporate Economic-Administrative Department is responsible for establishing the formats in the web application (chart of accounts, information packages). Those who have been designated for each subsidiary and are in charge of control supervise the process used to harmonise the information of each subsidiary with the Group standards.

F.5. Supervision of the functioning of the system

Report on at least the following, describing their principal features:

- F.5.1 The activities of the audit committee in overseeing ICFR as well as whether there is an internal audit function one of the responsibilities of which is to provide support to the committee in its task of supervising the internal control system, including ICFR. In addition describe the scope of ICFR assessment made during the year and the procedure through which the person responsible for performing the assessment communicates its results, whether the company has an action plan detailing possible corrective measures, and whether their impact on financial reporting has been considered.

In accordance with the provisions of its own Regulations, the Audit Committee is responsible for supervising the preparation process and the integrity of the financial information, ensuring its compliance with the legal provisions, the accurate determination of the consolidation scope, as well as overseeing the proper internal control risk management systems, including ICFR.

The Audit Committee ensures the staff involved in the ICFR:

- Act with integrity and are independent in the performance of their work, thus ensuring that their conclusions are objective and impartial.
- Are competent and possess the necessary technical expertise to perform their work diligently.

The CAF Group has an Internal Audit Area whose role includes assisting the Audit Committee in its task of supervising the design and operation of the ICFR. Every year, the head of Internal Audit presents the internal audit activities to the Audit Committee for its approval, which includes ICFR oversight tasks. The content of the Annual Work Plan is reviewed and updated on an ongoing basis. Based on this plan, the head of Internal Audit reports regularly to the Audit Committee on its conclusions, any weaknesses detected, recommendations for improvement and action plans to implement corrective measures. This report can be presented either in person at the Audit Committee meetings or by sending it to the Committee.

In the 2023 reporting period the Annual Work Plan submitted and subsequently implemented by the Internal Audit Area covers the following matters related to the ICFR:

- Updating the financial information risk map in a process coordinated by the Financial Department. To this end, it is analyzed whether changes in the organisation, systems, businesses and processes should include variations in the identification and evaluation of the main risks to financial information.
- Analytical review of the financial information submitted to the CNMV on a quarterly basis, together with the review of the execution of control activities in the accounting close and consolidation and reporting processes, including a review of the main judgements and estimates.
- Review of processes and subsidiaries according to a risk-based rotation plan. This review shall include relevant financial information risks and their key controls.
- Quarterly follow-up on the status of the action plans proposed to tackle identified shortfalls and recommendations for further improvement.
- Annual report on ICFR indicators.

F.5.2 Whether there is a discussion procedure whereby the auditor (as defined in the Spanish Technical Audit Standards), the internal auditor and other experts can report to senior management and the audit committee or directors of the company any significant weaknesses in internal control identified during the review of the annual financial statements or any others that have been entrusted to them. Likewise, whether there is an action plan that tries to correct or mitigate the shortfalls observed.

The Audit Committee meets prior to the issuance of financial information to the markets with the Internal Audit Manager and the Management responsible for preparing the financial information to comment on any relevant aspects and, if appropriate, discuss significant control weaknesses identified. During fiscal year 2023, the head of Internal Audit has attended five meetings of the Audit Committee, reporting on the evolution of the annual work plan and the existing action plans to implement recommendations for improving internal control.

The external auditor meets the Audit Committee to present the conclusions of the audit work on the financial statements and to report any significant internal control weaknesses detected during the course of the audit, assessing their possible effects on the financial information. In this regard, there were no points that needed to be communicated.

In 2023, the external auditors appeared twice before the Audit Committee and met with the Board in the plenary session held on 19 December 2023.

F.6. Other relevant information

F.7. External auditor's report

Report:

F.7.1 Whether the ICFR information sent to the markets has been subjected to review by the external auditor, in which case the entity should include the corresponding report as an attachment. If not, reasons why should be given.

The external auditor's report regarding the financial information internal control system (ICFR) is attached hereto as an annex.

And that in pursuit of the company's interest, in addition to complying with applicable law and rules and conducting itself on the basis of good faith, ethics and a respect for commonly accepted best practices, it should seek to reconcile its own company interests, when appropriate, with the interests of its employees, suppliers, clients and other stakeholders that may be affected, as well as the impact of its corporate activities on the communities in which it operates and on the environment.

That the result of the prior analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors be contained in the supporting report from the nomination committee published upon calling the General Shareholders' Meeting to which the ratification, appointment or re-election of each director is submitted.

The nomination committee will annually verify compliance with this policy and explain its findings in the annual corporate governance report.

15. And that the number of female directors should represent at least 40% of the members of the Board of Directors before the end of 2022 and thereafter, and no less 30% prior to that date.

Complies []

Complies partially [X]

Explain []

The number of external directors constitutes a large majority on the Board of Directors. Likewise, the number of executive directors is considered to be the required minimum, taking into account the complexity of the group and the percentage of equity participation of these directors in the Company's capital. In line with commitments acquired in the previous year, on 24 February 2023, the Board of Directors, at the proposal of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, unanimously agreed to appoint a new Independent Director by co-option to fill the vacancy on the Board. As a result of this appointment, which was ratified by agreement of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders on June 10, 2023, the percentage of female directors, which had been temporarily reduced to 30% at the end of the 2022 financial year, has once again been at 36.36%, close to the 40% provided for in this Recommendation. The Company maintains its purpose of monitoring the new gender balance requirements that may be implemented in Spanish regulations, as well as the best practices and recommendations on good governance in this matter.

16. That the number of proprietary directors as a percentage of the total number of non-executive directors not be greater than the proportion of the company's share capital represented by those directors and the rest of the capital.

This criterion may be relaxed:

- a) In large-cap companies where very few shareholdings are legally considered significant.
- b) In the case of companies where a plurality of shareholders is represented on the Board of Directors without ties among them.

Complies [X]

Explain []

17. That the number of independent directors should represent at least half of the total number of directors.

That, however, when the company does not have a high level of market capitalisation or in the event that it is a large-cap company with one shareholder or a group of shareholders acting in concert who together control more than 30% of the company's share capital, the number of independent directors should represent at least one third of the total number of directors.

Complies [X]

Explain []

18. That companies should publish the following information on its directors on their website, and keep it up to date:

- a) Professional profile and biography.
- b) Any other Boards to which the directors belong, regardless of whether or not the companies are listed, as well as any other remunerated activities engaged in, regardless of type.
- c) Category of directorship, indicating, in the case of individuals who represent significant shareholders, the shareholder that they represent or to which they are connected.
- d) Date of their first appointment as a director of the company's Board of Directors, and any subsequent re-elections.
- e) Company shares and share options that they own.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

19. That the annual corporate governance report, after verification by the nomination committee, should explain the reasons for the appointment of any proprietary directors at the proposal of shareholders whose holding is less than 3%. It should also explain, if applicable, why formal requests from shareholders for presence on the Board were not honoured, when their shareholding was equal to or exceeded that of other shareholders whose proposal for proprietary directors was honoured.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable [X]

20. That proprietary directors representing significant shareholders should resign from the Board when the shareholder they represent disposes of its entire shareholding. They should also resign, in a proportional fashion, in the event that said shareholder reduces its percentage interest to a level that requires a decrease in the number of proprietary directors.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

21. That the Board of Directors should not propose the dismissal of any independent director before the completion of the director's term provided for in the articles of incorporation unless the Board of Directors finds just cause and a prior report has been prepared by the nomination committee. Specifically, just cause is considered to exist if the director takes on new duties or commits to new obligations that would interfere with his or her ability to dedicate the time necessary for attention to the duties inherent to his or her post as a director, fails to complete the tasks inherent to his or her post, or is affected by any of the circumstances which would cause the loss of independent status in accordance with applicable law.

The dismissal of independent directors may also be proposed as a result of a public takeover bid, merger or other similar corporate transaction entailing a change in the shareholder structure of the company, provided that such changes in the structure of the Board are the result of application of the proportionate representation criterion provided in Recommendation 16.

Complies Explain

22. That companies should establish rules requiring that directors inform the Board of Directors and, where appropriate, resign from their posts, when circumstances arise which affect them, whether or not related to their actions in the company itself, and which may harm the company's standing and reputation, and in particular requiring them to inform the Board of any criminal proceedings in which they appear as suspects or defendants, as well as of how the legal proceedings subsequently unfold.

And that, if the Board is informed or becomes aware in any other manner of any of the circumstances mentioned above, it must investigate the case as quickly as possible and, depending on the specific circumstances, decide, based on a report from the nomination and remuneration committee, whether or not any measure must be adopted, such as the opening of an internal investigation, asking the director to resign or proposing that he or she be dismissed. And that these events must be reported in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are any special reasons not to do so, which must also be noted in the minutes.

Without prejudice to the information that the company must disseminate, if appropriate, at the time of adopting the corresponding measures.

Complies Complies partially Explain

23. That all directors clearly express their opposition when they consider any proposal submitted to the Board of Directors to be against the company's interests. This particularly applies to independent directors and directors who are unaffected by a potential conflict of interest if the decision could be detrimental to any shareholders not represented on the Board of Directors.

Furthermore, when the Board of Directors makes significant or repeated decisions about which the director has serious reservations, the director should draw the appropriate conclusions and, in the event the director decides to resign, explain the reasons for this decision in the letter referred to in the next recommendation.

This recommendation also applies to the secretary of the Board of Directors, even if he or she is not a director.

Complies Complies partially Explain Not applicable

24. That whenever a director leaves before the completion of his or her term of office, due to resignation or resolution of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the director should explain the reasons for this decision, or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion of the reasons for the cessation, in a letter addressed to all members of the Board of Directors.

And that, without prejudice to all this being reported in the annual corporate governance report, insofar as it is relevant to investors, the company must publish the cessation as quickly as possible, adequately referring to the reasons or circumstances adduced by the director.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

25. That the nomination committee should make sure that non-executive directors have sufficient time available in order to properly perform their duties.

And that the Board regulations establish the maximum number of company Boards on which directors may sit.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

26. That the Board of Directors meet frequently enough to be able to effectively perform its duties, and at least eight times per year, following a schedule of dates and agendas established at the beginning of the year and allowing each director individually to propose other items that do not originally appear on the agenda.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

27. That director absences occur only when absolutely necessary and be quantified in the annual corporate governance report. And when absences do occur, that the director appoint a proxy with instructions.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

28. That when directors or the secretary express concern regarding a proposal or, in the case of directors, regarding the direction in which the company is headed and said concerns are not resolved by the Board of Directors, such concerns should be included in the minutes at the request of the director expressing them.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

29. That the company should establish adequate means for directors to obtain appropriate advice in order to properly fulfil their duties including, should circumstances warrant, external advice at the company's expense.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

30. That, without regard to the knowledge necessary for directors to complete their duties, companies make refresher courses available to them when circumstances make this advisable.

Complies Explain Not applicable

31. That the agenda for meetings should clearly indicate those matters on which the Board of Directors is to make a decision or adopt a resolution so that the directors may study or gather all relevant information ahead of time.

When, in exceptional circumstances, the chairman wishes to bring urgent matters for decision or resolution before the Board of Directors which do not appear on the agenda, prior express agreement of a majority of the directors shall be necessary, and said consent shall be duly recorded in the minutes.

Complies Complies partially Explain

32. That directors be periodically informed of changes in shareholding and of the opinions of significant shareholders, investors and rating agencies of the company and its group.

Complies Complies partially Explain

33. That the president, as responsible for the effective functioning of the board of directors, in addition to exercising the functions that are legally and statutorily attributed to him, prepare and submit to the board of directors a program of dates and matters to be discussed; organize and coordinate the periodic evaluation of the board, as well as, where appropriate, that of the company's chief executive; be responsible for the direction of the Board and the effectiveness of its work; ensuring that sufficient time is devoted to considering strategic issues, and approve and supervise refresher courses for each director when circumstances warrant.

Complies Complies partially Explain

34. That when there is a coordinating director, the articles of incorporation or Board regulations should confer upon him or her the following powers in addition to those conferred by law: to chair the Board of Directors in the absence of the chairman and deputy chairmen, should there be any; to reflect the concerns of non-executive directors; to liaise with investors and shareholders in order to understand their points of view and respond to their concerns, in particular as those concerns relate to corporate governance of the company; and to coordinate a succession plan for the chairman.

Complies Complies partially Explain Not applicable

35. That the secretary of the Board of Directors should pay special attention to ensure that the activities and decisions of the Board of Directors take into account such recommendations regarding good governance contained in this Good Governance Code as may be applicable to the company.

Complies Explain

36. That the Board of Directors meet in plenary session once a year and adopt, where appropriate, an action plan to correct any deficiencies detected in the following:

- a) The quality and efficiency of the Board of Directors' work.
- b) The workings and composition of its committees.
- c) Diversity in the composition and skills of the Board of Directors.
- d) Performance of the chairman of the Board of Directors and of the chief executive officer of the company.
- e) Performance and input of each director, paying special attention to those in charge of the various Board committees.

In order to perform its evaluation of the various committees, the Board of Directors will take a report from the committees themselves as a starting point and for the evaluation of the Board, a report from the nomination committee.

Every three years, the Board of Directors will rely for its evaluation upon the assistance of an external advisor, whose independence shall be verified by the nomination committee.

Business relationships between the external adviser or any member of the adviser's group and the company or any company within its group must be specified in the annual corporate governance report.

The process and the areas evaluated must be described in the annual corporate governance report.

 - d) Ensuring that the external auditor holds an annual meeting with the Board of Directors in plenary session in order to make a report regarding the tasks performed and the development of the company's accounting situation and risks.

56. 57. That only executive directors should receive variable remuneration linked to corporate results and personal performance, as well as remuneration in the form of shares, options or rights to shares or instruments referenced to the share price and long-term savings plans such as pension plans, retirement schemes or other provident schemes.

Consideration may be given to delivering shares to non-executive directors as remuneration providing this is conditional upon their holding them until they cease to be directors. The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director may need to sell in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

58. That as regards variable remuneration, remuneration policies should incorporate the necessary limits and technical safeguards to ensure that such remuneration is in line with the professional performance of its beneficiaries and not based solely on general developments in the markets or in the sector in which the company operates, or other similar circumstances.

And, in particular, that variable remuneration components:

- a) Are linked to pre-determined and measurable performance criteria and that such criteria take into account the risk incurred to achieve a given result.
- b) Promote the sustainability of the company and include non-financial criteria that are geared towards creating long term value, such as compliance with the company's rules and internal operating procedures and with its risk management and control policies.
- c) They are based on balancing the attainment of short-, medium- and long-term objectives, so as to allow remuneration of continuous performance over a period long enough to be able to assess its contribution to the sustainable creation of value, such that the elements used to measure performance are not associated only with one-off, occasional or extraordinary events.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

59. That the payment of variable remuneration components be subject to sufficient verification that previously established performance or other conditions have effectively been met. Entities must include in their annual report on director remuneration the criteria for the time required and methods used for this verification depending on the nature and characteristics of each variable component.

That, additionally, companies consider the inclusion of a reduction ('malus') clause for the deferral of the payment of a portion of variable remuneration components that would imply their total or partial loss if an event were to occur prior to the payment date that would make this advisable.

61. That a material portion of executive directors' variable remuneration be linked to the delivery of shares or financial instruments referenced to the share price.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [X] Not applicable []

The Company's Remuneration Policy does not provide for the possibility of establishing a variable remuneration system that is linked to the delivery of shares or financial instruments pegged to their value.

62. That once shares or options or financial instruments have been allocated under remuneration schemes, executive directors be prohibited from transferring ownership or exercising options or rights until a term of at least three years has elapsed.

An exception is made in cases where the director has, at the time of the transfer or exercise of options or rights, a net economic exposure to changes in the share price for a market value equivalent to at least twice the amount of his or her fixed annual remuneration through the ownership of shares, options or other financial instruments.

The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director may need to sell in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition or, following a favourable assessment by the nomination and remuneration committee, to deal with such extraordinary situations as may arise and so require.

64. That payments for contract termination should not exceed an amount equivalent to two years of total annual remuneration and should not be paid until the company has been able to verify that the director has fulfilled all previously established criteria or conditions for payment.

For the purposes of this recommendation, payments for contractual termination will be considered to include any payments the accrual of which or the obligation to pay which arises as a consequence of or on the occasion of the termination of the contractual relationship between the director and the company, including amounts not previously vested of long-term savings schemes and amounts paid by virtue of post-contractual non-competition agreements.

The Comprehensive Risk Management System adopted by CAF is aligned with international standards, ISO 31000 and COSO ERM (Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission – Enterprise Risk Management), regarding the use of an effective methodology for integrated risk analysis and management and the Three Lines Model, on assigning responsibilities in the risk management and control area.

The main aspects of the Three Lines Model are set out below:

Determining the General Risk Control and Management Policy and supervising the internal information and control systems are two of the functions and competencies of our Board of Directors, with the Audit Committee being delegated the responsibility of supervising and evaluating the Group's risk control and management systems, as well as supervising the Company's internal risk control and management function.

Responsibility for all activities aimed at achieving the Organisation's objectives, including those related to risk and opportunity management, falls to the Company's Management, which promotes a culture sensitive to respect for risk appetite.

Every activity undertaken involves uncertainties. These can be risks that can hinder us achieving our objectives, or opportunities we can exploit to maximise them. For this reason, the functions that carry out activities at CAF, both in the provision of products and services and in support areas, always keep in mind the importance of anticipating and identifying uncertainty events, evaluating them and, if appropriate, managing them.

With an entire organisation focused on risk and opportunity management, the work of the second line is crucial in three aspects:

- 1) Ensure the correct evaluation and quantification of risks: it challenges the assessments of the first line and supports it in quantification based on its knowledge and experience, and its independence.
- 2) Provide management with information on risks in understandable and common language that enables risk-based decision-making.
- 3) Ensure that the company's global risk level remains within the appetite established by the Board of Directors, maintaining sufficient independence for its proper functioning and reporting directly to the Audit Committee.

In general, the role of second line of assurance is assigned to the Risk Management Department. It is integrated into the Finance and Strategy Department under the direct supervision of the Audit Committee. This department is responsible for ensuring the proper functioning of the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System, maintaining risk at levels consistent with the established appetite. However, the Group has various complementary second lines of assurance based on specific areas of expertise and internal control systems.

In the specific case of compliance risks of a fiscal nature, the role of the second line is played by the Corporate Tax Function, which controls the level of fiscal risk both for each business and geography and at the corporate level.

The third line is made up of the Internal Audit team. From the objectivity, authority and credibility conferred by its independence from Management, it evaluates the suitability and effectiveness of risk management and governance. Its systematic analysis and reporting of its findings to both Management and the Audit Committee promotes and facilitates continuous improvement.

Developments in 2023 included:

Progress continued on updating the Group's risk catalogue, improving the methodology and management dynamics associated with each type of risk. In 2023, the focus was on deepening risk management in relation to employment by Human Resources, with work to improve the maturity of mitigation measures and controls for environmental and occupational health and safety (OHS) risks for employees.

Additionally, progress has continued in refining the management of risks and opportunities derived from climate change within the framework of the Comprehensive Risk Management System. Specifically, the level of detail of the analysis has continued to increase.

In accordance with the request from the Board of Directors of CONSTRUCCIONES Y AUXILIAR DE FERROCARRILES, S.A. (hereinafter the Entity) and our engagement letter dated October 9, 2023, we have performed certain procedures on the "ICFR related information" attached in section F of the Annual Corporate Governance Report of CONSTRUCCIONES Y AUXILIAR DE FERROCARRILES, S.A., which summarizes the internal control procedures of the Entity in relation to the annual financial information.

The Directors are responsible for adopting the appropriate measures in order to reasonably guarantee the implementation, maintenance and supervision of an adequate internal control system as well as developing improvements to that system and preparing and establishing the content of the accompanying ICFR related information attached.

It should be noted that irrespective of the quality of the design and operability of the internal control system adopted by the Entity in relation to its annual financial information, it can only provide reasonable, rather than absolute assurance with respect to the objectives pursued, due to the inherent limitations to any internal control system.

In the course of our audit work on the financial statements and pursuant to the Technical Auditing Standards, the sole purpose of our assessment of the entity's internal control was to enable us to establish the nature, timing and extent of the audit procedures to be applied to the Entity's financial statements. Therefore, our assessment of the internal control performed for the purposes of the audit of the financial statements was not sufficiently extensive to enable us to express a specific opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control over the regulated annual financial information.

For the purpose of issuing this report, we exclusively performed the specific procedures described below and indicated in the Guidelines on the Auditors' report relating to information on the Internal Control over Financial Reporting of Listed Companies, published by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) on its website, which establishes the work to be performed, the minimum scope thereof and the content of this report. Given that the scope of these procedures was limited and substantially less than that of an audit or a review of the internal control system, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness thereof, or its design or operating effectiveness, in relation to Entity's annual financial information for 2023 described in the ICFR related information attached. Consequently, had we performed additional procedures to those established by the Guidelines mentioned above or had we carried out an audit or a review of the internal control over the regulated annual financial reporting information, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

Likewise, since this special engagement does not constitute an audit of the financial statements in accordance with prevailing audit regulations in Spain, we do not express an audit opinion in the terms provided for therein.

The procedures performed were as follows:

1. Read and understand the information prepared by the Entity in relation to the ICFR - which is provided in the Annual Corporate Governance Report disclosure information included in the Directors' Report- and assess whether such information addresses all the required information which will follow the minimum content detailed in section F, relating to the description of the ICFR, as per the model established by CNMV Circular nº 5/2013 dated June 12, 2013 and subsequent amendments, the most recent one being CNMV Circular 3/2021 of September 28 (hereinafter, the CNMV Circulars).
2. Make enquiries of personnel in charge of preparing the information described in point 1 above in order to: (i) Obtain an understanding of the process followed in its preparation; (ii) Obtain information which will allow us to assess whether the terminology used is adapted to the definitions provided in the reference framework; (iii) Obtain information on whether the control procedures described are implemented and in use by the Entity.
3. Review the explanatory documentation supporting the information described in point 1 above, which should basically include that which is provided directly to those responsible for preparing the ICFR descriptive information. In this respect, the aforementioned documentation includes related reports prepared by the Internal Audit Department, senior management, and other internal and external experts providing support to the Audit and Compliance Committee.
4. Compare the information described in point 1 above with our knowledge of Entity's ICFR obtained as a result of performing the external audit procedures within the framework of the audit of the financial statements.
5. Read the minutes of the meetings held by the Board of Directors, Audit and Compliance Committee and other Entity committees in order to assess the consistency between the ICFR issues addressed therein and the information provided in point 1 above.
6. Obtain the representation letter related to the work performed, duly signed by the personnel in charge of preparing the information discussed in point 1 above.

As a result of the procedures performed, no inconsistencies or issues were observed that might have an impact on ICFR related information.

This report was prepared exclusively within the framework of the requirements stipulated in article 540 of the Consolidated text of the Corporate Enterprises Act and CNMV Circulars on ICFR description in Annual Corporate Governance Reports.
