B.2. Indicate whether there are any differences between the company's manner of adopting corporate resolutions and the regime provided in the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act and, if so, give details:

B.3. Indicate the rules for amending the company's articles of incorporation. In particular, indicate the majorities required for amendment of the articles of incorporation and any provisions in place to protect shareholders' rights in the event of amendments to the articles of incorporation.

The regime for modifying the Company's Bylaws does differ from the provisions of Articles 285 et seq of the Consolidated Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010 of 2 July, which require the approval of the General Shareholders' Meeting with the majorities indicated in Articles 194 and 201 of that Law.

Thus, article 13 of the Bylaws, in its ninth section, attributes to the General Meeting the power to agree to modify them. Article 20 sets down that the adoption of resolutions on the issue of bonds that are convertible into shares or bonds that attribute a share in Company earnings to bondholders; capital increases and reductions; the removal or limitation of pre-emptive rights to acquire new shares; the conversion, merger or spin-off or the global assignment of the Company's assets and liabilities or the transfer of its registered office abroad, and, in general, any amendment of the Articles of Association, shall require that the shareholders present or represented at first call hold at least 50% of the subscribed share capital with voting rights. On second call, the attendance of shareholders accounting for 25% of the share capital will be sufficient. When shareholders representing 25% or more of the subscribed capital with voting rights but less than 50% attend the second call, such resolutions may only be validly adopted with the vote of two-thirds of the capital present or represented at the Meeting. Further, in compliance with the provisions of Article 286 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, when the annual or extraordinary General Meeting has to resolve on the modification of the Bylaws, the notice of call must, with due clarity, express the matters to be modified and the rights of every shareholder to examine, at the registered office, the full text of the proposed modification and the report thereon, as well as to request that these documents be delivered or sent to them (Article 16 of the Company's Bylaws).

Pursuant to Article 21 of the Company's Bylaws, shareholders holding one thousand or more shares of the Company may attend the General Meeting physically or telematically and take part in its deliberations with the right to speak and vote. In order to exercise their right to attend, shareholders must have the shares registered in their name in the corresponding book entry register five days prior to the day on which the General Shareholders' Meeting is to be held. Shareholders owning fewer shares may group together and grant their proxy to another shareholder in order to reach one thousand or more shares. Any shareholder entitled to attend may be represented at the General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, even if that person is not a shareholder.

In addition, the "General Shareholders' Meeting" subsection contains all the information that the Company makes available to shareholders ahead of the General Shareholders' Meeting, including the announcement of the agenda and call, the motions to be voted on, the documents to be laid before the General Shareholders' Meeting for approval, the procedures and channels in place for exercising the rights of information, attendance, granting of proxies and remote attendance, requesting further information and clarifications and obtaining information on the business discussed at the meeting and the resolutions passed after the General Meeting has finished. Information is likewise provided on meeting announcements, motions, available documentation and resolutions adopted at General Meetings held in previous years.

In addition, under article 539.2 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, at the same time as the call to each general meeting, direct access to the Electronic Shareholders' Forum is enabled to allow for communication among shareholders regarding the call and the meeting itself.

The corporate website provides further information on these matters in both Spanish and English.

Also indicate the specific measures adopted by the Board of Directors and the Appointments and Remuneration Committee to achieve a balanced and diverse presence of directors.

If the company does not apply a diversity policy, explain the reasons why.

Description of policies, objectives, measures and how they have been applied, and results achieved

The Company has a Diversity and Board Member Selection Policy (hereinafter, the "Policy"), of a specific and verifiable nature, available on the corporate website

This Policy, updated by the Board of Directors at its meeting on 17 December 2024, to essentially adapt its content to the new legal obligations on gender equality established by Organic Law 2/2024, of 1 August, on equal representation and the balanced presence of women and men, which incorporates Directive 2022/2381/EU into the Spanish legal system by modifying, among others, the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, which will be applicable to CAF from 30 June 2027 onwards, aims to ensure that the proposals for the appointment and re-election of CAF Board Members are based on a prior analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors, and promote equality between women and men, as well as diversity with respect to issues such as knowledge, experience, age or disability among Board members, applying criteria that ensure the existence of adequate diversity in its composition and the absence of implicit bias that may constitute discrimination based on age, gender, sexual orientation and identity, gender expression, disability or any other personal condition.

The Policy establishes that it is the responsibility of the Board to ensure that the director selection procedures meet these objectives and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of female directors in a number that allows for a balance between women and men to be achieved.

The aim is to ensure that the Board of Directors and its committees have a balanced composition that enriches decision-making and contributes a diversity of points of view, with full compliance with the suitability requirements, both individual and joint, of these bodies.

In this respect, criteria aimed at ensuring diversity on the Board of Directors serve as an important element in analysing the needs of the Board of Directors when it comes to the selection of directors. This is achieved by using the Board's competences matrix, which the Appointments and Remuneration Committee regularly updates.

Diversity criteria may influence the selection of board members when the assurance of a diverse membership is required so as to benefit the Company by offering a broad range of experiences and perspectives that add value in the decision-making processes of the Board of Directors.

Notably, the Policy sets out diversity criteria in relation to the following categories: (i) Training and work experience, (ii) Age, (iii) Disability and (iv) Gender equality (see section 4 of the Policy).

The Regulations of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee attribute to this Committee the function of annually verifying compliance with the Diversity and Director Selection Policy, reporting on this in the annual corporate governance report.

In 2024, the Board of Directors submitted to the General Shareholders' Meeting the proposals for the re-election of Ms. Idoia Zenarrutzabeitia Beldarrain (proprietary director), Ms. Marta Baztarrica Lizarbe (Executive Director), Ms. Carmen Allo Pérez (independent director) and Mr. Manuel Domínguez de la Maza (proprietary director), as well as setting the number of directors at eleven (11) members, thus maintaining the number that had been previously set by the Board in 2022.

In all the aforementioned re-election processes, strict compliance was given to the provisions of the Policy, both in relation to the diversity criteria, as well as in terms of the conditions that candidates must meet in terms of honourability, suitability, recognised solvency, competence, experience, training, qualifications, dedication and commitment to the role of director. On the occasion of the convening of the the General Meeting, the mandatory reports of the Board of Directors were made available to the shareholders, which, together with the previous reports and proposals of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee that were mandatory in each case, contained the assessment of the competence, experience and merits of the various candidates, as well as their suitability to continue fulfilling the functions of directors.

The proposed resolutions presented to the General Meeting were approved with sufficient majorities in all cases.

At the end of the reporting year, the Board comprised ten (10) members. Its composition is balanced in terms of knowledge, experience, age and gender and is aligned with good governance recommendations and legal provisions on the percentage of female directors, enriched with skills that are relevant to the Company and in line with the diversity objectives set out in the Policy.

As a fundamental tool for supervising the balance, diversity and quality of the Board, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee duly updated its competences matrix in 2024, submitting this tool for review to ensure its validity and alignment with the Company's strategy.

On 16 December 2024, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee issued its Annual Report verifying compliance with the Diversity and Director Selection Policy in that year. The conclusions presented were favourable, as explained in greater detail in Section C.1.7 of this report.

- C.1.6 Describe the measures, if any, agreed upon by the Appointments Committee to ensure that selection procedures do not contain hidden biases which impede the selection of female directors and that the company deliberately seeks and includes women who meet the target professional profile among potential candidates, making it possible to achieve a balance between men and women. Also indicate whether these measures include encouraging the company to have a significant number of women in executive positions:

Explanation of measures

CAF's Appointments and Remuneration Committee ensures that when covering new vacancies, the selection processes utilised are not implicitly biased and do not hinder the selection of female directors, thus it includes women with the required profile among potential candidates and under the same conditions to achieve a balance between men and women. Article 3 of the Committee's Regulations also set out, as one of its duties, "Establishing a target level of representation of the gender with the lowest representation on the Board of Directors and issuing guidelines on how to achieve that target".

The Company's Diversity and Director Selection Policy, updated in December 2024 with the fundamental objective of adapting its content to the new legal obligations regarding the balanced presence of men and women, promotes the objective that the number of female directors represents at all times, at least the established percentage of the total members of the Board of Directors.

Good governance recommendations or, where appropriate, the Law. This aspect has been especially considered in the successive renewals of the Board of Directors that have taken place, which has resulted in significant progress in recent years in terms of the presence of women on the Board of Directors. Thus, at the close of the reported year, the number of female directors as a percentage of the total Board members stood at 40%; a percentage that complies with that provided for by Recommendation 15 of the Code of Good Governance of listed companies (hereinafter, "CGG"), as well as with that incorporated into article 529 bis of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, in its latest version, which will be applicable to CAF from 30 June 2027 onwards.

As regards senior managers, the Company maintains a clear commitment to equality objectives that promote the creation of mechanisms that facilitate the access of all available talent to managerial positions, irrespective of their gender. In this regard, it should be noted that the Group's Legal and Compliance Department is led by a woman who is an executive director and Secretary to the Board. Additionally, the head of Internal Audit is a woman.

The Company is also seeking to include more women on the management committees of the Group's business units and at various subsidiaries, having made significant progress in recent years.

If in spite of any measures adopted there are few or no female directors or senior managers, explain the reasons for this:

Explanation of reasons

CAF promotes equality in the selection and promotion processes and is advancing in the implementation of measures that ensure a balanced representation of women and men at the various levels within the organisation.

As explained in the previous sections, the Company has been making progress in general terms regarding the inclusion of women both on the Board of Directors and in managerial positions within the organisation.

As provided for in CAF's Code of Conduct, Sustainability Policy and Diversity and Director Selection Policy, the Company is committed to respecting diversity and the right to equal treatment between women and men.

To this end, the Group, under the leadership of the Human Resources Department, actively promotes the absence of all discrimination, direct or indirect, especially on grounds of gender, as well as equal opportunities, through internal policies and strategies.

For its part, the Collective Agreement of CAF, S.A. expresses the desire to promote women's access to employment and the effective application of the principle of equality and non-discrimination in working conditions between men and women.

Also, the existence of an Equality Committee in the Company should be noted, which is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of equality plans and, in particular, of annually supervising the equality indicators in the personnel selection and promotion processes. A plan on diversity, equity and inclusion has been set in motion and will be implemented throughout 2025.

In view of all of the foregoing, the measures that have been implemented will foreseeably lead to a progressive increase in the number of women in executive positions at the Group in the coming years.

C.1.7 Explain the conclusions of the Appointments Committee regarding verification of compliance with the policy aimed at promoting an appropriate composition of the Board of Directors.

On December 16, 2024, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee issued its Annual Report on verification of compliance with the Diversity and Board Member Selection Policy in said year.

This report monitors the proper application of this Policy in the re-election processes of Ms. Idoia Zenarrutabeitia Beldarrain (proprietary director), Ms. Marta Baztarrica Lizarbe (Executive Director), Ms. Carmen Allo Pérez (independent director) and Mr. Manuel Domínguez de la Maza (proprietary director), respectively, as Company directors, who were approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting on 15 June, concluding that the provisions had been strictly complied with, both in relation to the criteria of diversity with respect to selection, and in the conditions that candidates must meet in terms of honourability, solvency, competence, experience, training, qualifications, dedication and commitment to the role of director.

In particular, the report confirms that the preparation of the proposals for re-election of the aforementioned Directors took into consideration the needs of the Board, in accordance with the competency matrix, in order to promote diversity in the broadest sense, both in terms of gender and experience, knowledge, age or seniority in office of the Directors, among other aspects, as an essential factor to achieve their objectives from a plural and balanced vision for decision-making. As a result of their respective analyses, the Board and the Appointments and Remuneration Committee itself considered that the presence of the candidates, both on the Board and on the Audit Committee, in the case of Ms. Allo Pérez, would contribute to strengthening the diversity and balance of profiles already existing in the composition of said bodies, providing extensive knowledge and experience in areas of value to the Company.

Of the ten Board members, at the closing date of the reported financial year and at the date of issue of this report, two were classified as executives, two as proprietary directors, three as independent and three as other non-executive directors. Four of the Board members are women, thus reaching the percentage of 40% provided for in Recommendation 15 of the Good Governance Code, as well as in article 529 bis of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, following the reform carried out by Organic Law 2/2024 of 1 August, on equal representation and the balanced presence of women and men.

As regards the number of independent directors, the Company intends to restore the former equilibrium with respect to the number of members in this category, which decreased due to the vacancy that arose on the Board during the year reported.

Based on all of the foregoing, CAF's Appointments and Remuneration Committee concluded in its report that the Diversity and Board Member Selection Policy had been satisfactorily complied with in the year, reporting on this to the Board. It has also confirmed that during the year 2024 no unforeseen circumstances have occurred that have resulted in any variation in the category of the various Directors.

Without prejudice to the above, the Commission remains committed to continuing its drive for continuous improvement in the area of good corporate governance, particularly in relation to the composition of the Board.

The amended Regulations were filed at the Companies Registry of Guipúzcoa on 14 January 2025 and disclosed to the CNMV on 21 January 2025. Since this last date, it is also published on the corporate website (https://admin.cafmobility.com/uploads/SGC_0003_Reglamento_Cd_A_EN_0f43245838.pdf)

C.1.16 Specify the procedures for selection, appointment, re-election and removal of directors. List the competent bodies, steps to follow and criteria applied in each procedure.

The Board of Directors shall be composed of no less than seven and no more than fifteen members freely appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting or, in the case of early vacancy, by the same Board through co-option. The director does not need to be a shareholder. The prohibitions and incompatibilities established by law will apply (Article 29 of the Company's Bylaws). Should a vacancy occur during the period the Directors were appointed, the Board of Directors may cover them until the first General Meeting is held. Should the vacancy take place once the General Meeting has been called but before it is held, the Board of Directors may appoint a director until the following General Meeting is held. Should the vacancy be for the position of Chairman or Chief Executive Officer, the Board of Directors may cover the vacancies and temporarily appoint a Chairman. The Board may also appoint a Chief Executive Officer with the favourable vote of two thirds of its members. These appointments shall be fully effective until the first General Shareholders' Meeting (Article 33 of the Company's Bylaws). Furthermore, in the exercise of its powers to lay proposals before the General Shareholders' Meeting and regarding co-option in the case of vacancies, the Board shall ensure a balanced membership, with a broad majority of non-executive directors and an adequate proportion between proprietary and independent directors, with the latter representing at least one third of total Board membership (article 7 of the Board of Directors' Regulations).

Any director appointment or re-election proposal submitted by the Board of Directors to the General Shareholders' Meeting for approval and any Appointments made by the Board by virtue of its powers of co-option must be preceded by the corresponding proposal from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee in the case of independent directors, and from the Board for all other director categories. The proposal shall be accompanied with an explanatory report issued by the Board of Directors, assessing the competence, experience and merits of the proposed candidate, to be attached to the General Meeting or Board of Directors' Meeting minutes. The proposal for appointment or re-election of any non-independent director must also be preceded by a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. When the Board departs from the proposals of the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, it must give reasons for its action and record these reasons in the minutes. (Article 15 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

With respect to the appointment of non-executive directors, the Board shall endeavour to ensure that candidates shall be selected from among persons recognised for their solvency, competence and experience, and extreme care shall be taken in respect of calls to fill independent director positions. Independent directors will be considered those who, appointed based on their personal and professional conditions, can perform their duties without being conditioned by relations with the Company or its group, its significant shareholders or its directors. No directors meeting the conditions provided for in article 16.3 of the Board of Directors' Regulations can be deemed to be independent directors.

Those who hold a shareholding equal to or greater than that legally considered significant or who have been appointed due to their status as shareholders, even if their shareholding does not reach said amount, as well as those who represent shareholders of those previously mentioned, will be considered proprietary directors. Proprietary directors who lose their status due to the disposal of shares by the shareholder they represent may only be re-elected as independent directors once the shareholder they represented up to that moment has sold all its remaining shares Company shares. A director who holds a shareholding in the Company may have the status of independent director, provided that they meet all the conditions established in that article and, in addition, their participation is not significant (sections 4 and 5 of article 16 of the Board of Directors' Regulations).

The selection of candidates for directorships will be based on a prior analysis of the needs of the Company's Board of Directors, which must be carried out by the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. Taking into account the Board's competences matrix, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee will specify the profile and skills required from the new director and assess the suitability of each candidate. This Committee will keep a record of the evaluation carried out and the suitability of the candidate for the category to which he or she has been assigned in the minutes of the session in which the matter was discussed and, where applicable, in the report or proposal that the Committee must submit to the Board for the appointment or re-election of directors.

C.1.17 Explain to what extent the annual evaluation of the Board has given rise to significant changes in its internal organisation and in the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description of amendments

The annual evaluation of the Board, its Committees and the performance of its members has not led to any significant changes in its internal organisation or in the procedures applicable to its activities.

Describe the evaluation process and the areas evaluated by the Board of Directors with or without the help of an external advisor, regarding the functioning and composition of the Board and its committees and any other area or aspect that has been evaluated.

Description of the evaluation process and evaluated areas

In accordance with article 5.5 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, the Board of Directors must carry out an annual evaluation of its functioning and that of its Committees and propose, based on its results, an action plan that corrects the shortcomings detected.

Following Recommendation 36 of the CGG and in accordance with the criteria established by Technical Guide 1/2019 of the CNMV, on Appointments and Remuneration Committees, the following main areas have been examined:

- a) Quality and efficiency of the functioning of the Board of Directors and its Committees, including the degree of effective use of the contributions of its members.
- b) Size, composition and diversity of the Board and its committees.
- c) Performance of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.
- d) Performance and contribution of each director, paying special attention to those responsible for the various Board Committees.
- e) Frequency and duration of meetings.
- f) Contents of the agenda and adequacy of the time devoted to discussing the various topics according to their importance.
- g) Quality of the information received.
- h) Breadth and openness of the debates.
- i) If the decision-making process is dominated or strongly influenced by one member or a small group of members.

From a methodological standpoint, the indicators taken into consideration included the degree to which the Board and the committees comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, guidelines and best practices in the area of corporate governance and the internal regulatory compliance system, and the level of attainment of the plans and goals set for the year in question.

As a result of this process, the Board of Directors' assessment of its work and that of its members and Committees in 2024 was positive, in line with the favourable conclusions set forth in the preliminary reports prepared by the Committees, which the Board of Directors approved at its meeting held on 30 January 2025. Specifically, the Board verified that all the action plans put into place during the year evaluated had been satisfactorily complied with.

Based on these conclusions, the Board has drawn up different procedures to be undertaken in 2025, which will allow the Board and its committees to make further progress in the design of and compliance with the Company's internal regulatory compliance system.

C.1.18 Provide details, for years in which the evaluation was carried out with the help of an external advisor, of the business relationships that the external advisor or company in its group maintains with the company or any company in its group.

Not applicable

C.1.19 Indicate the cases in which directors are obliged to resign.

Directors are required to make their positions available to the Board of Directors and, if the latter deems it appropriate, to formalise their resignation in the following cases:

a) When the specific reasons for which they were appointed, if applicable, disappear suddenly and, in particular, when they are a proprietary director, they must resign when the shareholder they represent sells all of their shareholding or reduces it to a level that requires a reduction in the number of proprietary directors. b) When any of the cases of incompatibility or prohibition provided for by law arise. c) When they are prosecuted for an alleged criminal act. (d) When they are seriously reprimanded by the Board of Directors following a report by the Appointments and Remuneration Committee for having breached their obligations as directors. (e) When they incur a conflict of interest with the Company and fail to comply with the duties of communication and abstention. (f) When they fail to comply with the obligation of non-competition.

Directors must inform the Board and, where appropriate, resign when situations arise that affect them, whether or not related to their performance in the Company itself, which may harm the credit and reputation of the Company and, in particular, in the event of any criminal case in which they appear as investigated, as well as any procedural developments. The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become apprised of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, the measures to be adopted. All of this will be disclosed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special justifying circumstances, which must be recorded in the minutes. The foregoing is without prejudice to the information that the Company must release, if required, at the time the corresponding measures are implemented. The Board of Directors will not propose the dismissal of an independent director before the completion of the statutory period for which he or she was appointed, except when there is just cause, assessed by the Board of Directors following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. When a director resigns from their position before their tenure expires, they must sufficiently explain their reasons or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion on the reasons for removal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter sent to all members of the Board of Directors. (Article 18 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

C.1.20 Are qualified majorities other than those established by law required for any particular kind of decision?

No

If so, describe the differences.

If so, provide a brief description of the rules.

Article 31 of the Company's Articles of Association and article 14 of the Board of Directors' Regulations stipulate that directors must attend Board meetings and, when they cannot do so personally, they may confer their representation to another director in writing addressed to the Board Chairman, with no restrictions on the number of proxies that each director can hold for Board attendance, although a separate proxy must be granted for each meeting. Proxy may be granted in writing through any means and shall include the corresponding direction of the vote for each of the matters mentioned in the agenda.

These same rules also specify that non-executive directors may only confer their proxy on a fellow non-executive director.

C.1.28 Explain the mechanisms, if any, established by the Board of Directors to ensure that the financial statements it presents to the General Shareholders' Meeting are prepared in accordance with accounting regulations.

The Board of Directors will submit to the General Meeting the financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting legislation. If the auditor includes any qualification in its report, the Audit Committee Chair shall clearly explain the Committee's opinion on its content and scope at the General Shareholders' Meeting. Also, a summary of that opinion will be made available to shareholders at the time of publication of the call to the General Meeting, together with the other proposals and reports of the Board (Article 37 of the Board Regulations).

To this end, the separate and consolidated financial statements are subject to prior review by the Company's Audit Committee, which is assigned, inter alia, the responsibility of supervising and evaluating the preparation, presentation and completeness of the financial and non-financial information relating to the Company and, where applicable, to the group, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the adequate delimitation of the consolidation perimeter and the correct application of accounting criteria, and presenting recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors, directed to safeguard its integrity (Article 3 of the Regulations of the Audit Committee). It is also up to the Company's management to collect information regularly from the auditors on the auditing process and in particular on any differences that may arise between the auditors and the Company's management. When the audit has been completed, the Committee shall review, along with the external auditor, any significant findings brought to light from these tasks, as well as the content of its mandatory reports. (Article 13 of the Audit Committee Regulations).

The financial statements for 2023 and previous years were approved by the Board of Directors without qualifications.

C.1.30 Indicate the specific mechanisms established by the company to safeguard the independence of the external auditors, and any mechanisms to safeguard the independence of financial analysts, investment banks and rating agencies, including how legal provisions have been implemented in practice.

Mechanisms to preserve the independence of external auditors:

In addition, according to the Company's Bylaws, the Audit and Compliance Committee is responsible for managing the relationships with the external auditors in order to gather information on matters that may call the auditor's independence into question, to be analysed by the Committee, as well as any other matters related to the auditing process, and any other disclosures set forth in accounting and auditing legislation and auditing standards. The Audit Committee must receive a statement from the external auditor, annually, affirming its independence in relation to the Company or companies directly or indirectly connected to such, as well as the information of any type of additional services rendered and corresponding fees received from these entities by the auditor, or by persons or entities associated to the latter, pursuant to the governing regulations concerning the undertaking of account auditing. Similarly, according to the Company's Bylaws, every year the Audit Committee is required to issue, prior to the issuance of the audit report, an annual report containing an opinion on the auditor's independence (Article 37 bis of the Company's Bylaws).

In accordance with the above, the Audit Committee has its own Regulations that govern its nature, composition, functions, operating rules and powers. This Regulation stipulates that the Audit Committee is responsible, among others, for the following functions related to the external auditor and the preservation of its independence: (i) Submit to the Board of Directors the proposals for the selection, appointment, re-election and replacement of the auditor, taking responsibility for the selection process, as well as their recruitment conditions, in accordance with the applicable regulations, and regularly obtain information from it on the audit plan and its execution, in addition to preserving its independence in the exercise of its functions. (ii) Establish the appropriate relations with the external auditor to receive information on those issues that may pose a threat to its independence, for examination by the Committee, and any other matters related to the audit process and, where appropriate, the authorisation of services other than those prohibited, in accordance with the applicable regulations, as well as any other notifications provided for in the Auditing legislation and auditing standards. In any case, they must receive a declaration of independence annually from the external auditors in relation to the entity or entities linked to them directly or indirectly, as well as detailed individual information on the additional services of any kind provided and the corresponding fees received from these entities by external auditor or by persons or entities linked thereto and their network, in accordance with the audit regulations. (iii) Issue annually, prior to the issuance of the auditor's report, a report expressing an opinion on whether the independence of the auditors or audit firms has been jeopardised. This report must contain a reasoned evaluation of each and every one of the aforementioned additional services rendered, as referred to in the previous point, taken on an individual basis and as a whole, other than statutory audit services and in relation to independence or audit regulations. In this regard, in compliance with Recommendation 6 of the CGG, the Company shall post the report of the Audit Committee on the External Auditor's independence on its corporate website in due course ahead of the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting. (iv) Ensure that the external auditor's remuneration for his work does not compromise its quality or independence, as well as establish an indicative limit on the fees that the auditor may receive annually for services other than auditing. (v) Ensure that the company and the external auditor adhere to current regulations on the provision of non-audit services, the limits on the concentration of the auditor's business and, in general, other requirements designed to safeguard auditors' independence. With respect to auditor relations, article 13 of the Audit Committee's Regulations states that (i) communications between the Committee and the auditors will be fluid, ongoing and comply with the obligations established in the audit regulations, without compromising auditor independence or the effectiveness with which the audit and verification of sustainability information is carried out or with which audit procedures are implemented, (ii) communication with the auditor must be included in an annual meeting agenda, most of which will be held without the presence of the Company's management, and (iii) the Audit Committee shall collect information regularly from the auditors on the audit process and, in particular, on any differences that may arise between the auditors and Company management.

When the audit has been finalised, the Committee will review, along with the external auditor, any significant findings brought to light from these tasks, as well as the content of its mandatory reports.

Likewise, and to ensure the independence of the external auditors, the Company has an internal Procedure for Engaging the Services of the Accounts Auditor. The entire CAF Group must follow and comply with this procedure.

According to this procedure, the Audit Committee must approve, prior to their arrangement, any non-audit services requested from the audit firm of the CAF Group or other entities in its network, so as to verify that the services would not compromise the auditor's independence.

Before any application is submitted to the Commission, the Company's Corporate Economic and Financial Department and Internal Audit check that the requested services are not prohibited in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 of 16 April.

In this regard, it should be noted that, without prejudice to applicable legal provisions, the Committee has prudently, and to protect the Company's good name, set a limit on the fees to be received by the statutory auditor for non-audit services. This limit is more restrictive than that provided for in Article 4.2 of Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 and Article 41.1 of Spanish Audit Law 22/2015. More precisely, this limit is 50% of the average audit fee for the last three years, i.e. below the legal limit of 70%.

Amount invoiced for non-audit services (thousands of euros)	75	100	175

The cost of work other than audit engagements (thousands of euros) does not include fees for services other than auditing activities, but which are legally required under national or European Union legislation. Services not included in 2024 include fees for the verification of the Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report.

For its part, all non-audit services provided to the CAF Group by the external auditor and its organisation in the reported year were duly approved by the Audit Committee within the framework of the procedure described above. More precisely:

- On 18 December 2023, the Audit Committee verified that the services included in the 2024 non-audit services proposal: (i) were reasonable; (ii) were permitted under the Audit Law; and (iii) were below the maximum limit provided for in Article 4.2 of Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 and Article 41.1 of the Spanish Audit Law 22/2015, as well as the more restrictive limit set by the Committee itself in the interests of prudence, at 50% of the average audit fee for the last three years.

- Likewise, on December 16, 2024, Internal Audit presented to the Audit Committee the comparison between the budget approved for 2024 and the actual fees incurred for said services, verifying that the estimated amounts had not been exceeded, nor had unapproved services been contracted. Subsequently, on 29 January 2025, the Audit Committee was asked to approve the extension of the budget for non-audit services for 2025, by EUR 6,000 for the inclusion of the verification service comprising four Key Performance Indicators of the Green and Sustainable Financing Framework, which was unanimously agreed.

Likewise, directors must inform the Board and, where appropriate, resign when situations arise that affect them, whether or not related to their performance in the Company itself, which may harm the credit and reputation of the Company and, in particular, in the event of any criminal case in which they appear as investigated, as well as any procedural developments.

The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become apprised of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, the measures to be adopted. All of this will be disclosed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special justifying circumstances, which must be recorded in the minutes. The foregoing is without prejudice to the information that the Company must release, if required, at the time of the adoption of the corresponding measures. When a director ceases their duties before their tenure expires, they must sufficiently explain their reasons or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion on the reasons for dismissal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter sent to all members of the Board of Directors.

D. RELATED PARTY AND INTRAGROUP TRANSACTIONS

- D.1. Explain, where appropriate, the procedure and competent bodies for the approval of operations with related parties and intragroup, indicating the criteria and general internal rules of the entity that regulate the abstention obligations of the affected directors or shareholders and detailing the procedures
- Internal reporting and periodic control procedures established by the company in relation to those related-party transactions whose approval has been delegated by the board of directors.

Pursuant to the provisions of its Regulations, the Board of Directors is responsible, on a non-delegable basis, for approving, subject to a prior report from the Audit Committee, transactions of the Company or companies in its group that qualify as related party transactions, unless such approval falls within the remit of the General Shareholders' Meeting and without prejudice to the possible delegation by the Board of such powers in the situations and under the terms prescribed by law and in the aforementioned Regulations. (Article 5 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

Regarding the approval of related party transactions and the abstention obligations of the affected directors and shareholders, the Board Regulations explicitly state that the power to approve related party transactions whose amount or value is 10% or more of the Company's total assets according to the latest annual balance sheet approved by the Company shall be vested in the General Shareholders' Meeting. When the General Shareholders' Meeting is called to decide on a related party transaction, the shareholder concerned shall be deprived of the right to vote, except where the motion has been approved by the Board of Directors without the majority of independent directors voting against. However, where applicable, the rule of the reversal of the burden of proof provided for in the Capital Companies Act shall apply. The Board of Directors shall have the power to approve all other related party transactions and this power may not be delegated. In accordance with the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act, the affected director, or the director representing or related to the affected shareholder, must abstain from taking part in the deliberations and voting on the corresponding motion.

However, directors who represent or are related to the parent company on the governing body of the subsidiary listed company should not abstain. In such cases, if their vote was decisive to adopt the resolution, the rule of reversal of the burden of proof shall apply in the same terms as those provided for in the Spanish Corporate Enterprise Act for the approval of related party transactions by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The approval of a related party transaction by the General Meeting or by the Board shall be subject to a prior report by the Audit Committee. In its report, the Committee must assess whether the transaction is fair and reasonable in the eyes of the Company and, if applicable, of the shareholders other than the related party, and give an account of the assumptions on which the assessment is based and the methods used. The directors concerned may not participate in drawing up the report.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may delegate the approval of the following related party transactions:

- a) transactions between companies forming part of the same group that are carried out in the ordinary course of business and under market conditions;
- b) transactions entered into under contracts whose standard terms and conditions are applied en masse to a large number of customers; are at prices or rates established generally by the party acting as supplier of the goods or services in question; and whose amount does not exceed 0.5 per cent of the Company's revenues.

In such cases, the approval of any related party transactions that may have been delegated will not require a prior report from the Audit Committee. However, the Board of Directors shall establish an internal reporting and periodic control procedure for such transactions, in which the Audit Committee shall be involved and shall verify the fairness and transparency of such transactions and, as the case may be, compliance with the legal criteria applicable to the above exceptions (Article 29 Regulations of the Board of Directors).

In furtherance of the foregoing, on 16 December 2021 the Board of Directors, following a report from the Audit Committee, unanimously resolved to delegate, jointly and severally, to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and to the Chief Financial and Strategy Officer, the approval of the transactions described in Sections a) and b) above.

The CAF Group holds non-controlling or jointly controlled interests in companies engaged in concessions for the operation of railway operating systems, the supply of fleet and subsequent maintenance, as well as the leasing of railway equipment. The CAF Group's operations with these companies involve the supply of fleet and the performance of turnkey projects, as well as the maintenance of railway equipment and material. It also has various financial loans in place that are consistent with the typical financing structure for these types of concession or leasing companies. These transactions are part of the ordinary business of the CAF Group and are carried out under normal market conditions. Information on CAF's stakes in these companies is included in Notes 2-f and 8 to the 2024 consolidated financial statements and Note 9 to the consolidated financial statements includes information on the balances and transactions carried out in 2024 with these companies that were not eliminated as part of the consolidation process.

- D.6. Give details of the mechanisms in place to detect, determine and resolve potential conflicts of interest between the company and/or its group and its directors, senior management, significant shareholders or other related parties.

Pursuant to article 229 of the Spanish Corporate Enterprises Act and articles 24 and 25 of the Board of Directors' Regulations, the directors have the duty to notify the Board of Directors of any situation of conflict, direct or indirect, that they or persons linked to them may have with the Company's interests. In addition, in the case of conflict of interests, the affected director should refrain from intervening in the discussion and voting of the decisions and resolutions causing such conflict. Any conflict of interest should be mentioned in the Notes to the Financial Statements. On the other hand, the Board Regulations regulate in detail the obligations of non-competition and of avoiding situations of conflict of interest and establishes a series of prohibited conducts for directors, as well as the consequences that arise in the event of non-compliance with these. The Board's Regulations expressly state in article 18 that the Board members must make their post available to the Board and resign, if the Board sees fit, if they encounter a conflict of interest and breach the duties of disclosure and abstention or where they breach the non-compete obligation. All this without prejudice to the regime applicable to related-party transactions that has been explained in section D.1 above.

D.7. Indicate whether the company is controlled by another entity in the meaning of Article 42 of the Commercial Code, whether listed or not, and whether it has, directly or through any of its subsidiaries, business relationships with said entity or any of its subsidiaries (other than the listed company) or carries out activities related to those of any of them.

E. RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

E.1. Explain the scope of the company's financial and non-financial risk management and control system, including tax risk.

CAF Group's Comprehensive Risk Management System works in a continuous manner and is managed at corporate level for all businesses and geographic areas in which the Group operates.

The undertaking of the Board of Directors' of CAF in establishing the mechanisms and basic principles for adequate control and risk management is reflected in the General Risk Control and Management Policy, whose essential principles rest upon the previously mentioned Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System. This policy is part of the Group's internal regulations and is available on the website www.cafmobility.com, in the corporate policies area.

The General Risk Control and Management Policy covers all the companies comprising the CAF Group in all jurisdictions where CAF operates, being applicable to all Group employees. In those non-CAF Group companies, the Company seeks to ensure that the principles, guidelines and risk limits are consistent with those established through this General Risk Control and Management Policy.

The purpose of the aforementioned Policy is to establish the basic principles and guidelines for the control and management of risks of any nature affecting the Company and the CAF Group, through the identification of the main risks and by employing appropriate internal control and information systems, while conducting periodic monitoring on the performance of these mechanisms.

It should be noted that through the General Risk Control and Management Policy, CAF Group is committed to developing all its capabilities so that all types of risks are properly identified, measured, managed, prioritised and controlled. In this regard, the Audit Committee is tasked with ensuring, on an ongoing basis, compliance with the General Risk Control and Management Policy and that the integrated system in place operates properly.

In practice, the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System is based on a range of strategic and operational actions in order to manage risks and meet the objectives set by the Board of Directors. The diversity and complexity of the activities carried out by the Group carry a variety of risks and the Company defines basic guidelines and instructions to ensure standard operating procedures at each of the divisions so as to ensure an adequate level of internal control.

The Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System of the CAF Group is an interlinked system of rules, processes, procedures, controls and information systems where the global exposure is determined after assuming all the risks that the Company is exposed to and it takes into consideration their impacts on mitigation. This system allows the consolidation of the risk exposures of the business divisions and areas of the Group and their valuation, as well as the preparation of the corresponding management information for decision making in terms of risk and expected profitability, which is subject to a continuous improvement process that enables it to be strengthened over time.

To respond to the need for global and homogeneous risk management, CAF Group assumes a corporate risk control and assessment model under the following basic assumptions:

- Defining maximum risk limits that can be assumed for each business according to its characteristics and expected profitability.
- Establishing procedures for the identification, analysis, evaluation, treatment, monitoring, control and reporting of the various risks.
- Coordination and communication so that the corporate procedures and the different businesses are consistent with this General Risk Control and Management Policy and the Group's Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System.

The Comprehensive Risk Management System adopted by CAF is aligned with international standards, ISO 31000 and COSO ERM (Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission – Enterprise Risk Management), regarding the use of an effective methodology for the analysis and integrated management of risk and the Three Lines Model, on the assignment of responsibilities in the area of risk management and control as developed in section E.2 below.

E.2. Identify the bodies within the company responsible for preparing and executing the Financial and Non-financial Risk Management and Control System, including tax risk.

As explained in the previous section, the Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for determining the General Risk Control and Management Policy, including tax risks, as well as supervising the internal information and control systems.

Likewise, as provided for in its Regulations, the Audit Committee is the body responsible for supervising and evaluating the financial and non-financial risk control and management systems relating to the Company and, where applicable, to the group, including operational and technological risks, including cybersecurity and artificial intelligence, legal, sustainability, political, reputational or corruption-related risks, as well as supervising the Company's internal risk control and management function.

For its part, the Executive Committee is the Company's highest executive body and as such is responsible for ensuring the effective implementation of the Risk Control and Management System and knowing the main elements of its evolution and control, although Risk management and internal control are based on the Three Lines Model.

With an entire organisation focused on risk and opportunity management, the work of the second line is crucial in three aspects:

- 1) Ensure the correct evaluation and quantification of risks: it challenges the assessments of the first line and supports it in quantification based on its knowledge and experience, and its independence.
- 2) Provide management with information on the different types of risks in an understandable and common language that allows risk-based decision making.
- 3) Ensure that the Company's overall risk level remains within the appetite established by the Board of Directors, maintaining sufficient independence for its proper functioning and reporting directly to the Audit Committee.

In the case of the CAF Group, the Risk Management Department, under the direct supervision of the Audit Committee, has been expressly assigned the following functions:

- Ensure the proper functioning of the comprehensive risk control and management system and, in particular, that all the most important risks affecting the Company are identified, managed and adequately assessed, maintaining the risk at levels consistent with the established appetite.
- Actively participating in drawing up the risk strategy and in important decisions regarding risk management and
- Ensure that the comprehensive risk control and management system adequately mitigates risks within the framework of the policy defined by the Board of Directors.

The Group has various complementary second lines of assurance based on specific areas of expertise and internal control systems. In particular, different Compliance Officers have been appointed. In the specific case of fiscal compliance risks, the second line role is fulfilled by the Corporate Tax Function, whose functions include: (i) applying the Tax Policy determined and approved by the Board of Directors; and (ii) ensuring compliance with the principles of action in tax matters set out in the Tax Policy approved by the Board of Directors, which expressly include the prevention and reduction, as far as possible, of tax risks, both for each business and geography and at corporate level.

The third line is made up of the Internal Audit team. From the objectivity, authority and credibility conferred by its independence from Management, it evaluates the suitability and effectiveness of risk management and governance, within the framework of the Annual Internal Audit Plan. Its systematic analysis and reporting of its findings to both Management and the Audit Committee promotes and facilitates continuous improvement.

In addition, the remit of CAF's Internal Audit function includes, among others, the assurance of risks to which the Company is exposed and, for that purpose, it is involved in the examination and assessment of control systems and procedures and risk mitigation processes.

- E.3. Indicate the main financial and non-financial risks, including tax risks, as well as those deriving from corruption (with the scope of these risks as set out in Royal Decree Law 18/2017), to the extent that these may affect the achievement of business objectives.

The most important risks facing the Group may be classified into the following categories:

Strategic risks: these being risks stemming from the uncertainty of the macroeconomic and geopolitical environment, along with the inherent characteristics of the sector and markets where the Group operates, and the decisions adopted on strategic and technological plans.

Financial risks: arising from market fluctuations (financial and commodities markets), contractual relations with third parties (customers, debtors) and counterparties related to investments in financial assets and financial liabilities (banks, investors). The subcategories of risks that are included are as follows:

Market risk, which includes the following risks:

Interest rate risk: risk of variations in interest rates that might give rise to changes in the Group's profit or loss and the value of its assets and liabilities.

Foreign currency risk: risk arising from changes in the exchange rates of currencies with an effect on future transactions and the valuation of assets and liabilities denominated in currency.

Commodity price risk: risk arising from changes in prices and market variables relating to commodities required in the businesses' supply chain.

Credit risk: it is the risk of insolvency or bankruptcy or possible non-payment of quantifiable monetary obligations by the counterparts to which the Group has effectively granted net credit and are pending liquidation or collection.

Liquidity and financing risk: in relation to liabilities, it is the risk linked to the impossibility of carrying out transactions or to non-compliance with obligations arising from operating or financial activities due to lack of funds or access to financial markets, whether derived from a decrease in the company's credit quality (rating) or other causes. In relation to assets, it is the risk of being unable to find at any given time parties to purchase an asset at the arm's length price or to obtain an arm's length price.

For more information on the financial risks, see the section on "Financial Risk Management" of the Notes to the Financial Statements.

Legal Risks: arising from the preparation and performance of various types of agreements and obligations (commercial, administrative, intellectual property, etc.) and the possible contingencies arising therefrom. Risks relating to legal proceedings, administrative procedures and claims are also included.

Operating Risks: inherent to all Group activities, products, systems and processes that lead to financial losses and damage in the Company image due to human/technological error, inadequate/defective internal processes or the intervention of external agents.

Corporate Governance Risks: arising from potential non-compliance with the Group's corporate governance system, which governs the design, integration and operation of the governance bodies and their relations with the Group's stakeholders and is rooted in the Group's commitment to ethical principles, best practices and transparency as the Group seeks to defend its interests and create sustainable value.

Compliance and Regulatory Risks: arising from the breach of applicable national and international regulations and laws irrespective of the activity in question, included in the following large blocks: (i) Commercial and Competition (market abuse, corporate obligations and securities market regulations, antitrust and unfair competition), (ii) Criminal (prevention of crimes, including those arising from corruption), (iii) Employment, (iv) Tax and (v) Administrative (including personal data protection regulations, environmental laws, etc.).

The 2024 Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report delves into the different types of risks listed previously. In particular, emphasis is placed on risks related to human rights, society, the environment, people, reputation and the fight against corruption and bribery.

E.4. Indicate whether the entity has risk tolerance levels, including for tax risk.

The risk tolerance level established at corporate level is understood at CAF as the willingness to assume a certain risk level, insofar as it allows value creation and business development, achieving an adequate balance between growth, performance and risk.

The CAF Group presents an overall prudent risk profile with a low tolerance level, in which the objective of guaranteeing the continuity over time of its activity and the sustainable growth, and therefore of its value contribution to its shareholders and to the company in general, prevails.

In order to achieve this risk profile, the Group is based on:

- A prudent policy in relation to bid submissions in tender processes, applying predetermined Risk-Reward thresholds in the decision-making process.
- A suitable risk management infrastructure in terms of governance and availability of material and human resources.
- Search for positioning in high growth segments, in geographies that are classified as strategic and in products in relation to which CAF has proven expertise and experience that enable value generation for the Company, maintaining in all cases the desired profitability and cash generation levels.

The level of risk is defined as the product of probability and impact. Both probability of occurrence and impact are assessed on a five-level scale, and uniform criteria are used to determine each level in each of the axes. The possible results of the combination of both are:

Very low and low-level risks may be accepted and a Control or Action Plan may not be needed in order to manage them.

Moderate-level risks should be carefully analysed in order to determine whether or not they are acceptable and, if appropriate, to establish a Control or Action Plan that brings the risk down to a low and therefore acceptable level.

High and very high-level risks shall require adequate administration and management and a formal Action Plan must be drawn up and then monitored according to its criticality, either by the Risk Management Department or directly by the Executive Committee and the Audit Committee.

Additionally, the risk assessment considers the different types of risks to which the Group may be exposed. Risk tolerance thresholds are generally defined, although largely in relation to Operational Business Risks. If these thresholds are exceeded, new or existing Controls or Actions Plans would be triggered. As for Operational Business Risks, tolerance is defined on the basis of the main figures of the businesses/projects.

With regard to other risks such as financial and strategic risks, a level of tolerance is proposed in terms of their economic impact at corporate level. Notably, there is a principle of zero tolerance towards the commission of illegal acts and fraud.

With regard to tax risks, the Corporate Tax Policy expressly covers the basic principles regarding tax matters for the Group, including, to the fullest extent possible, the prevention and reduction of tax risks while carrying on its activities and maintaining a prudent risk profile at all times. The management of fiscal risks is carried out within the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System.

E.5. Indicate which financial and non-financial risks, including tax risks, have materialised during the year.

No material or extraordinary risks materialised in 2024. The main aspects to be highlighted in relation to the most relevant strategic, operational and financial risks of the reported year are detailed below.

The main risks that may affect the achievement of business goals are managed actively by the organisation, while minimising any adverse risks faced by the Group. In general terms, the Group's business and regional diversification assists in reducing any material impacts on the Company's equity due to risk exposure.

The supply chain continues to be part of the business focus. That is why actions such as the signing of framework contracts with key providers of equipment and supplies continue to be implemented, linking price indexation to the performance of market indexes for the medium term. Alongside this, actions such as outsourcing purchases continue to be deployed to mitigate increased prices and cover the volume of purchases necessary for the global allocation of workloads.

It should be noted that in 2024, the Group's main supplier of aluminium profiles, Costellium, suffered flooding at its main plant and generated supply problems, leading to the consequent plant downtime risk and contract execution delays. In order to respond to these risks, different response plans have been activated to mitigate the impact of this event. The impact on sales and results in 2024 was insignificant.

However, and as has been observed, increased costs caused by inflation and interest rates have improved their tendency with respect to the previous year.

The Israel-Palestine conflict poses a risk of uncertainty in the markets in which the Group operates. The current conflict is affecting the execution rates of several Israeli projects. Even so, the Group maintains continuous communications with its clients, working collaboratively to address the problems arising from this situation.

With regard to Compliance risk management, it is worth noting that in 2024, ongoing projects awarded in previous years were monitored, subject to general or intensified reinforced due diligence, in accordance with section 7.2.7 of the Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report and section E.6 below which, due to their relevance, are subject to intensive monitoring and to non-financial reporting requirements, without any adverse impacts having materialised.

In 2024, no fines or sanctions were received and no significant non-financial risks materialised that had an impact on the Company's results.

The management in 2024 of significant contingencies from previous years is detailed in Note 25 of the Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements and in the Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report.

E.6. Explain the response and oversight plans for the company's main risks, including tax risks, as well as the procedures followed by the company in order to ensure that the Board of Directors responds to any new challenges that arise.

CAF's Comprehensive Risk Management System is based on preparing Controls and Action Plans through the appropriate corrective measures, using the META strategy.

Based on the criteria established by the CAF Group and the META analysis methodology, 4 possible strategies for risk management have been defined:

- Mitigate: The risk is accepted but Action Plans are implemented to reduce it.
- Avoid: It is considered that the conditions are not acceptable by the CAF group, so the risk must be eliminated (Zero Tolerance).
- Transfer: It is considered that there are measures that allow transferring the risk to a third party.
- Assume: It is considered that there are no measures to help reduce the risk, so the risk is accepted in its entirety.

In the case of non-manageable risks that raise the risk profile above the tolerance level, contingency plans to remediate the project in progress or in a previous stage are evaluated in order to decide on whether or not to submit the corresponding bid.

The Risk Management Department, under the direct supervision of the Audit Committee, is in charge of ensuring the proper functioning of the System. In particular, it ensures that all relevant risks that affect the Company are properly identified, managed and evaluated, and that these risks are suitably mitigated within the framework of the Policy approved by the Board of Directors.

At different intervals during the year, the Risk Management Department reviews the level of risk and compliance with the unique risk management methodology. On a monthly basis, the Risk Management Department meets with the different business units to form a picture of the business risk situation. And on a quarterly basis, it looks at the situation risks managed at the corporate level. Lastly, every six months, this same department prepares a global risk report on the Group for the Audit Committee. The Consolidated Financial Statements and Management Report provide details on the Company's risk management.

During the 2024 financial year, the Audit Committee has received an updated report on risks from the Head of the Risk Management Department, in its May and November sessions, with the personal attendance of its Head in both. Such report included a breakdown of the level of the Group's main risks (see section E.3), differentiating between risks managed at i) corporate and ii) business unit level.

In November, the head of the Tax Function, as the person in charge of the control and management of Group tax compliance risks, also presented to the Committee its annual report on compliance with the principles of action in tax matters established by the Board in the Tax Policy, describing the fiscal developments and their impact on the Group.

The Compliance Function approves several activity reports during the year, one of which constitutes the annual report of the Compliance Function, periodically reporting to the Audit Committee on the relevant aspects of the different areas of Compliance and their significant risks and, in particular, on compliance with the internal Codes of Conduct and on the Internal Information System (reporting channels).

In particular, relevant projects in the area of Human Rights Due Diligence and International Sanctions are monitored.

F. INTERNAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL REPORTING PROCESS

Describe the mechanisms forming your company's Internal risk management and Control systems relating to the process of publishing Financial Reporting (ICFR) of the company.

F.1. The entity's control environment

Report on at least the following, describing their principal features:

- F.1.1 The bodies and/or departments that are responsible for: (i) the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective ICFR system; (ii) its implementation; and (iii) its supervision.

CAF's Board of Directors is the body responsible for having and maintaining a proper and effective Financial Information Internal Control System. The Audit Committee is the body responsible for supervising, inter alia, the preparation, presentation and integrity of the regulated financial and non-financial reporting and information systems and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, in particular, the ICFR system. It also monitors the risk management systems or the systems and mechanisms linked to the Company's internal codes of conduct, as well as the internal audit services, and liaises with the auditors or audit firms on any significant weaknesses in the internal control system that may have been detected over the course of the audit. These functions are described in the Regulations of the Audit Committee.

The Internal Audit Function is entrusted by the Audit Committee with the supervision of the Internal Control System over Financial Reporting (ICFR), through the exercise of a unique and independent governance function, aligned with professional quality norms and standards, which contributes to good corporate governance and to ensuring that financial information has been prepared reliably.

The Economic-Financial and Strategy Management is the area responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance over time of an adequate and effective internal control system over financial information. The main specific functions of this area in relation to the internal control system over financial information are the following: (i) the design of the corporate ICFR model, which includes, among other aspects, the determination of relevant risks and key corporate control activities, (ii) the management of the governance model referred to in the ICFR: (iii) the design of the annual plan, which includes, among other functions, the analysis of materiality, the assessment of the needs for model extensions in the group, possible redesigns and the design of the rotating review plan, (iv) the recurring review of compliance with the model as well as the monitoring of recommendations and improvement plans, (v) coordination with other control models of the group (mainly the Risk and Compliance areas), (vi) management and coordination with the internal audit area and with the external auditor on internal control matters and (vii) maintenance and updating of the internal control manual.

- F.1.2 Indicate whether the following exist, especially in relation to the drawing up of financial information:

- Departments and/or mechanisms in charge of: (i) the design and review of the organisational structure; (ii) clear definition of lines of responsibility and authority with an appropriate distribution of tasks and functions; and (iii) ensuring that adequate procedures exist for their proper dissemination throughout the entity.

The Executive Director and the head of Human Resources are tasked with designing and reviewing the organisational structure and defining the lines of responsibility and authority for each business unit and subsidiary.

With regard to ICFR, the main tasks and controls to be carried out and supervised, and those persons responsible for them, are clearly defined in the processes determined as critical for the generation of financial information. Therefore, the lines of responsibility and authority are clearly defined in all cases. The breakdown of functions of the tasks considered incompatible is also documented for these processes.

In 2024, the definition and communication of the lines of responsibility and authority have been reinforced, through the publication of the Delegation of Authority matrix of the Group's Economic-Financial area. In addition to its publication on the corporate intranet and the dispatch by email through a broadcast list, specific training was established to publish the document within the organisation.

The organisational structure, as well as the lines of responsibility and authority, are accessible to all Group employees through the corporate Intranet, where updated documents are available.

Code of conduct, the body approving this, degree of dissemination and instruction, principles and values covered (stating whether there is specific mention of record keeping and preparation of financial information), body charged with analysing breaches and proposing corrective actions and sanctions.

CAF's Board of Directors keeps the CAF Group's Code of Conduct updated (the initial version of which dates from 27 July 2011), establishing at all times the good practice commitments and standards in force in terms of business ethics.

The Code of Conduct is, therefore, a declaration at the highest level and a guarantee of the CAF Group's leadership in, and commitment to, ethics, sustainability and good governance. The Code provides the basis for policies and standards of internal action.

The general principles of the CAF Code of Conduct are mandatory rules of conduct and ethical standards based on scrupulous respect for the law, human rights, public freedoms and fundamental rights, the principles of equal treatment, non-discrimination, protection from the exploitation of child labour and other principles contained in the international instruments it cites. In addition to the above, they are the minimum basis that must govern any business behaviour or action of CAF and its value chain.

With respect to financial information, the Code of Conduct includes a specific commitment to complete transparency, paying particular attention to ensuring that the information is prepared in a truthful manner and is recorded and disclosed to the market as required by applicable legislation. Likewise, the CAF Group seeks to faithfully and transparently reflect the reality of the Group, reporting in an integrated manner on all aspects of sustainability required by applicable regulations.

In this way, the CAF Group undertakes to transmit financial and non-financial information in a complete and truthful manner, allowing shareholders, investors, advisors and analysts and other stakeholders to form an objective judgment about the Group in line with best practices and applying the provisions of the General Corporate Communication Policy.

The CAF Group complies fully with legal obligations in relation to regular public information, always respecting applicable regulations on inside and other material information, in accordance with regulations on securities market and investment services.

The CAF Group Code of Conduct has been available on the corporate website (www.cafmobility.com) since its approval, in an easily identifiable section. This document is provided to new recruits and specific training on this subject is provided as a mandatory course in the onboarding programmes mentioned below.

Ongoing training initiatives to raise awareness and promote Compliance standards continued in 2024.

At the end of the year, although the dissemination of the Code of Conduct and the Crime Prevention Manual has been generalized to all employees, the corresponding training has been launched in accordance with plans adjusted to the needs of the different recipients within the Group. In 2024, 90% of the people included in the training plan in this subject have completed it. Since the start of the plan, more than 8,500 people have been trained (of which, 934 in 2024 and 1,045 in 2023). General anti-corruption training is included in this training plan.

Similarly, there is a system in place for training new employees. These programmes are included in the on-boarding plans for new employees. Training materials are constantly revised and updated.

Additionally, 100% of the CAF Group's project partners, in all the regions in which it operates, are informed of the existence and obligation of compliance on their part with the General Principles of the CAF Code of Conduct.

In furtherance of the above, the Corporate Compliance System (of which the Code of Conduct is its basic standard as indicated above) is intended for the prevention, detection and early management of compliance risks.

The CAF Group Compliance Function is the body with autonomous surveillance and control powers, entrusted to supervise the functioning of and compliance with the Corporate Compliance System as a whole and the direct management of at least the following areas: . (i) Business Ethics and Due Diligence in general, in terms of Human Rights and International Sanctions, (ii) Criminal Compliance, (iii) Anti-corruption, (iv) Competition, (v) Market Abuse and (vi) Protection of Personal Data).

In addition, this function is also entrusted with the supervision of other areas managed by other managers. It also coordinates with the remaining corporate functions with other responsibilities in the area of internal control and risk management and, in particular, with the ICFR Head.

To this end, the Compliance Function must, at a minimum, have the appropriate knowledge, skills and experience and must at all times have the integrity, autonomy and independence necessary to be able to perform its duties.

If there is an collegiate Compliance Function, one of its members will act as the Internal Reporting System (whistleblowing channels) Delegate, and will be considered to be the Corporate Compliance Officer, without simultaneously being allowed to be the head of other Functions or Departments unrelated to Compliance, thus permanently ensuring the necessary independence.

Furthermore, the Compliance Function has the necessary skills and authority to carry out the principles and objectives defined in the Policies corresponding to each of the areas and has a Corporate Department and Compliance Delegates with functional dependence within the Group, being able to delegate its own powers to any of the above, with sufficient organisational freedom to ensure the correct implementation of the Corporate Compliance System.

In particular, the Compliance Function will be the internal body responsible for monitoring, supervising and controlling the application of the Code of Conduct, periodically evaluating its effectiveness and adopting appropriate measures to resolve any deficiencies.

For further details on the Corporate Compliance System, please consult section 7.2 of the Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report included in the Management Report.

- Whistleblowing channel, allowing for the disclosure to the Audit Committee of irregularities of a financial and accounting nature, in addition to possible breaches of the code of conduct and irregular activities within the organisation. Such disclosures may be made on a confidential or anonymous basis and the rights of the whistleblower and the reported party are respected in all cases.

The Internal Reporting System Policy and the Internal Reporting System Corporate Procedure approved by CAF's Board of Directors, after consultation with the legal representatives of the workers, establish the basic rules for the management and operation of the Internal Reporting System that integrates all reporting channels into a single computer tool, publicly accessible through the corporate website.

Both the Policy and the Procedure comply with the different international and national regulatory requirements for the protection of whistleblowers and the fight against corruption and remain equally accessible, along with the rest of the System's documentation, on the CAF website.

The CAF Group's Internal Reporting System is managed by means of an IT tool, as the preferred channel for reporting actions or omissions constituting a criminal, serious or very serious administrative or criminal offence, as well as breaches related to the Code of Conduct or any other rule of the CAF Group's Internal Regulatory System.

This System allows for anonymous or named communications, both verbal and written, indicating the entity within the Group to which they are addressed, and guarantees the protection measures established by law for informants, related third parties and persons affected by the communications.

Among the System documentation is the detail of the existing information channels for each legal entity of the CAF Group and the person responsible for receiving communications, as well as the applicable Privacy Policy.

The Head of the Internal Information System is a collegiate body appointed by the Board of Directors of the parent company, which has delegated to one of its members the powers of management and processing of investigation files.

Throughout 2024, there has been a permanent monitoring of the different reporting channels and a periodic check of their proper functioning, with 32 complaints having been registered, which have given rise to 19 cases in the Internal Information System. Three internal investigations have also been initiated ex officio. None of the complaints or cases have resulted in the detection of any accounting irregularities.

- Training and periodic refresher programmes for personnel involved in the preparation and revision of financial information, as well as in the assessment of the ICFR system, covering at least accounting standards, auditing, internal control and risk management.

The Group has a corporate training budget and a training plan are designed at least every two years. Training needs are detected and activities for each department are scheduled as part of this plan.

Staff performance assessments are held every year and an individual development and training plan is set out for every employee included in the Training Plan. In addition, refresher courses taught by external specialists are held at least on an annual basis so as to ensure staff remain up to date on regulatory changes that can affect the preparation of the financial statements and webinars presented by experts on the matter are attended.

It is important to note that the recommendations issued by regulatory bodies such as ESMA and CNMV are also reviewed annually when drawing up the financial statements, with a focus on regulatory developments and other key economic circumstances and events.

The main indicators in relation to CAF, S.A.'s economic and financial training programmes in support of the businesses in 2024 are:

- Number of participants in these training actions: 1,679.
- Number of training hours received: 4,262 hours.

It should be noted that in 2024, as in 2023, a significant number of training hours were provided to employees related to the new ERP implemented.

Apart from general training, the main training activities focus on technical updating in relation to economic and financial aspects (such as legislation, tax and risks).

F.2. Assessment of risks in financial reporting

Report on at least the following:

F.2.1 The main characteristics of the risk identification process, including risks of error and fraud, as regards:

- Whether the process exists and is documented.

The basic mechanisms and principles for adequate risk control and management are reflected in the General Risk Control and Management Policy, on whose basic principles the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System is based.

The Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System assumes a centralised risk control and management model that covers all areas of its activity and integrates their vision into the management of the Organisation. This model establishes that all members of the organisation are actors in the process and aims to integrate it into the Company's culture.

CAF adopts a robust three-line system to organise this global management and ensure its consistency, in line with the best practices and recommendations in the international ISO 31000 and COSO ERM standards.

In line with what was set out in section E above, the first line is defined around risk management in the day-to-day operations of the Company and each of its businesses.

The second line comprises the assurance functions that control and supervise risk. There is a complementary assurance function for the specific case of the ICFR. This is aligned with the premises of the Comprehensive Risk Control and Management System and undertaken by the Economic-Financial and Strategy Department. This is an independent function with respect to the business functions, promoting a tight segregation of functions between the areas that assume the risk and the area responsible for its supervision.

This area defines the critical processes associated with each of the accounts and significant breakdowns. Risks that could generate errors or fraud in the financial information are identified based on the potential impact of an error on the financial statements and the likelihood of the risk occurring.

The third line is the independent review of the first two lines and is carried out by the Internal Audit Function. Its scope includes assessing the effectiveness of risk appetite management, control and governance processes and their correct execution.

- Whether the process covers all the objectives of financial reporting, (existence and occurrence; completeness; valuation; presentation; disclosure and comparability; and rights and obligations), whether it is updated and if so, how often.

At the beginning of each financial year, based on the Group's consolidated information and supported by projected financial information, an analysis is carried out of the main risks of error in the financial information, in relation to attributes such as existence and occurrence, integrity, valuation, presentation, breakdown and comparability and rights and obligations. The identified risks are subject to an evaluation process, estimating the probability and the impact they would have on financial information. This analysis includes the review of the routine financial reporting processes. During the 2024 financial year, the process has been updated, redesigning the impact thresholds as well as the probability parameters.

Additionally, during the year, the identified risk areas are monitored and updated, taking into account new relevant events that have occurred during the period. Thus, the internal control system includes the performance of periodic control activities focused on identifying new risk areas, such as, for example, meetings of the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department with the heads of the business units and meetings to review the reported financial information.

- The existence of a process for identifying the scope of consolidation, taking into account, among other factors, the possible existence of complex corporate structures or special purpose vehicles.

At least quarterly, the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department receives from the Corporate Legal Department the corporate organisation chart of the Group, identifying the variations in the perimeter that exist in the period. All variations in the perimeter are analysed by the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department.

- Whether the process takes into account the effects of other types of risk (operational, technological, financial, legal, tax, reputational, environmental, etc.) to the extent that they affect the financial statements.

The process takes into account all risks identifiable insofar as they affect the financial statements.

- The governing body within the company that supervises the process.

The Audit Committee is the body responsible for overseeing the regulated financial and related non-financial information preparation process and presentation, which includes the risk identification process.

F.3. Control activities

Report on whether the company has at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

- F.3.1 Review and authorisation procedures for financial information and a description of the ICFR, to be disclosed to the securities markets, indicating those responsible, as well as documentation describing the flow of activity and controls (including those relating to the risk of fraud) of the various types of transactions that may materially affect the financial statements, including the procedure for the accounting close and the specific review of significant judgements, estimates, valuations and projections.

Certification of financial statements: The financial statements are certified by the CEO together with the Economic-Financial and Strategy Director. Prior to that, the information used to draw up the statements will have been validated by the senior employees involved in preparing the statements and control activities will have been carried out to minimise the risks of any error that may affect the financial reporting process.

The Audit Committee is responsible for supervising and evaluating the preparation, presentation and completeness of the financial and non-financial information on the Company and, where appropriate, the Group, checking compliance with legal provisions, the appropriate definition of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting standards, and submitting recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors, aimed at safeguarding its completeness. The Audit Committee meets periodically to monitor, among other matters, periodic financial information, prior to its presentation to the Board of Directors, which is the body responsible for approving the financial statements and agreeing their publication and disclosure to the market.

Specifically, the Audit Committee ensures that the annual accounts submitted by the Board of Directors for approval by the General Shareholders' Meeting are prepared in accordance with accounting regulations. The Audit Committee shall report on the conclusions of its analyses to the Board of Directors at its subsequent meetings.

Prior to the formulation of financial information, specific actions are established for the supervision of the process of preparation and formulation of periodic financial information, among which the following stand out:

- Periodic meetings of the Audit Committee with the external auditor to review relevant matters of the audit work and analysis of the report with the final audit considerations.
- Review of the status of compliance with internal control activities and certifications by the Internal Audit Head, who periodically communicates their conclusions to the Audit Committee, as well as any weaknesses detected, recommendations and action plans to implement them. Likewise, the Internal Audit Head reports to the Committee on the conclusions of the review carried out on periodic financial information, both quarterly and half-yearly.
- As the area responsible for preparing financial information, the Economic-Financial and Strategy Department presents the most important aspects of the periodic financial statements to the Audit Committee prior to their authorisation for issue.

The main processes for generating financial information that materially affect the financial statements and for which there are risk and control matrixes are the following:

Consolidation
Recognition of Accounting Entries and Reporting of Financial Statements (Accounting Close)
Employee remuneration
Recognition of Income and Expenses (for each type of activity)
Billing and Clients (for each type of activity)
Purchasing and Inventory Management (for each type of activity)
Treasury Management
Tax
Investments

The risks of error that may affect the reliability of the financial information (including risks of error in relevant judgements, estimates, assessments and projections) have been identified for each of these processes, as have the control activities to mitigate those risks. A person is designated to implement and oversee each control activity, ensure that it is carried out in due course and gather all evidence needed to carry out the activity.

This system is updated on a continual basis and is adapted according to the risks identified.

F.3.2 Internal IT control policies and procedures (access security, control of changes, system operation, operational continuity and segregation of duties, among others) which support significant processes within the company relating to the preparation and publication of financial information.

The Management of Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) is a corporate process that falls under the CAF Group's Management Model. Its mission is to provide and manage services, supporting the Group's information technology and communication needs in any of the areas of business activity, enhancing the use of these technologies and providing an efficient and effective management over the available resources, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and assurances over the information.

The objectives of this process are to:

- Comply with the Corporate ICT development plan
- Ensure the availability of information systems (availability)
- Guarantee the security (confidentiality and integrity) of Information Systems
- Promote the standardisation of systems
- Improve the level of satisfaction of users of ICT systems
- Develop the ICT corporate framework

The ICFR includes control activities that monitor the proper performance of Reporting System processes in relation to:

- Information Technology management
- User management
- Configuration management
- Physical security management
- Change management
- Operational management and system control
- Continuity management
- Third-party management

Further highlights include the Information Security Management System (ISMS) that has been in place since 2017 in accordance with ISO 27001. The system has been certified since 2018 and was renewed in 2024 for the information systems managed by the Corporate Digital Department that support CAF's corporate processes. As a result of the implementation, a Security Committee has been created and a Security Manager designated, and the suppliers and personnel affected are required to read the Security Policy and expressly accept certain Terms and Conditions and a Best Practices Manual.

- F.3.3 Internal control policies and procedures for overseeing the management of activities subcontracted to third parties, as well as of those aspects of assessment, calculation or valuation entrusted to independent experts, which may materially affect financial statements.

There is an Accounting Policies Manual applicable to all CAF, S.A. subsidiaries, which includes, among others, an approval and supervision procedure for activities subcontracted to third parties with regard to the preparation of financial statements.

According to the existing matrix with delegation of authority, the hiring of independent experts to perform significant calculations or valuations must be approved by the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department, which assesses the training and independence of the expert before hiring them, to ensure their suitability.

The main activities identified as having been subcontracted to third parties include the preparation of the payroll and tax returns of certain subsidiaries (areas considered to be low-risk and subsidiaries that cannot materially affect the Group's financial statements) and subcontracting. In any case, with regard to the valuations entrusted to third parties that may materially affect the financial statements, it is the Company's policy to use firms of recognised prestige and independence and involve internal controls to review the hypotheses used and the calculations made by the third party.

F.4. Information and communication

Report on whether the company has at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

- F.4.1 A specifically assigned function for defining and updating accounting policies (accounting policy area or department) and resolving doubts or conflicts arising from their interpretation, maintaining a free flow of information to those responsible for operations in the organisation, as well as an up-to-date accounting policy manual distributed to the business units through which the company operates.

The Corporate Economic-Administrative Department is responsible for preparing the consolidated financial statements and those of the parent company. Its tasks include the resolution of accounting queries for the rest of the Group companies with which the Company has a direct and fluid relationship through the designated persons in charge at each subsidiary and the updating of the Accounting Policies Manual. This Manual is updated at least annually. To this end, the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department analyses the possible effects on the Group's accounting policies of any changes or novelties in accounting matters, along with the dates that each of these standards enter into force.

When it is determined that a new regulation, or interpretations of it, have an effect on the Group's accounting policies, the Manual is updated. The Manual was last updated in May 2024.

The Manual is available on CAF's internal portal.

- F.4.2 Mechanisms for capturing and preparing financial information in standardised formats for application and use by all units of the entity or group, and support its main financial statements and notes, as well as disclosures concerning ICFR system

Every year a schedule is drawn up of the information required to prepare the financial information for the following fiscal year.

The financial information of each subsidiary is reported directly to the Corporate Economic-Administrative Department, through a web support tool (SAP BPC) with consistent reporting formats, through which information is obtained to support the consolidated financial statements, as well as the consolidated information contained in the notes to the financial statements, and to aggregate and consolidate the information reported.

The Corporate Economic-Administrative Department is responsible for establishing the formats in the web application (chart of accounts, information packages). Those who have been designated for each subsidiary and are charge of control supervise the process used to harmonise the information of each subsidiary with the Group standards.

Furthermore, considering the growth of the Group in recent years, with the aim of continuing to ensure the robustness of the internal control system, it has been decided to implement a new tool for the management of the ICFR. Thus, during the 2024 financial year, the implementation of the internal control model in the SAP GRC tool has begun. This tool will be operational during the first quarter of 2025, and will allow, in addition to the performance, supervision and demonstration of the control activities of the ICFR model, the establishment of automatic controls and the integration of controls from other regulations (Cybersecurity, Compliance and ICNFR-ICFR) into the same system.

F.5. Supervision of the functioning of the system

Report on at least the following, describing their principal features:

- F.5.1 The activities of the audit committee in overseeing ICFR as well as whether there is an internal audit function one of the responsibilities of which is to provide support to the committee in its task of supervising the internal control system, including ICFR. In addition describe the scope of ICFR assessment made during the year and the procedure through which the person responsible for performing the assessment communicates its results, whether the company has an action plan detailing possible corrective measures, and whether their impact on financial reporting has been considered.

In accordance with the provisions of its own Regulations, the Audit Committee is responsible for supervising the preparation process and the integrity of the financial information, ensuring its compliance with the legal provisions, the accurate determination of the consolidation scope, as well as overseeing the proper internal control risk management systems, including ICFR.

The Audit Committee ensures the staff involved in the ICFR:

- Act with integrity and are independent in the performance of their work, thus ensuring that their conclusions are objective and impartial.
- Are competent and possess the necessary technical expertise to perform their work diligently.

The CAF Group has an Internal Audit Function whose functions include supporting the Audit Committee in its work of supervising the design and operation of the ICFR.

The Internal Audit Function reports functionally to the aforementioned Audit Committee and administratively to the CEO. This position provides it with the authority and status within the organisation to perform internal audit services independently without interference.

The CAF Internal Audit Function Statute, aligned with the International Framework for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing and the Global Internal Audit Standards, was updated in January 2025, and has an Implementation Manual that defines the methodology and system by which said function must be guided.

The Statute defines the purpose, authority, roles, responsibilities and scope of the activities of the function, as well as its position within the organisation, establishing the framework for its relations with the Audit Committee, the CEO and the Executive Committee.

Among other responsibilities and functions, the Internal Audit Head annually submits the proposed internal audit activities to the Audit Committee for approval, including the tasks to be performed for supervision of the ICFR. The content of the Annual Work Plan is reviewed and updated on an ongoing basis.

Based on this plan, the head of Internal Audit reports regularly to the Audit Committee on its conclusions, any weaknesses detected, recommendations for improvement and action plans to implement corrective measures. This report can be presented either in person at the Audit Committee meetings or by sending it to the Committee.

In the 2024 financial year, the annual work plan presented and subsequently executed by the Internal Audit Function includes the following aspects related to the ICFR.

- Review of the updating of the financial information risk map in a process coordinated by the Economic-Financial Department. To this end, it is analysed whether changes in the organisation, systems, businesses and processes should include variations in the identification and evaluation of the main risks to financial information.
- Analytical review of the financial information submitted to the CNMV on a quarterly basis, together with the review of the execution of control activities in the accounting close and consolidation and reporting processes, including a review of the main judgements and estimates.
- Review of processes and subsidiaries according to a risk-based rotation plan. This review shall include relevant financial information risks and their key controls.
- Quarterly follow-up on the status of the action plans proposed to tackle identified shortfalls and recommendations for further improvement.

• Annual report on ICFR indicators.

F.5.2 Whether there is a discussion procedure whereby the auditor (as defined in the Spanish Technical Audit Standards), the internal auditor and other experts can report to senior management and the audit committee or directors of the company any significant weaknesses in internal control identified during the review of the annual financial statements or any others that have been entrusted to them. Likewise, whether there is an action plan that tries to correct or mitigate the shortfalls observed.

Per its regulations, the Audit Committee has, among other functions, those of supervising and evaluating the preparation, presentation and the integrity of financial information, supervising internal control effectiveness and discussing with the auditor the significant weaknesses in the internal control system identified during the audit.

In general terms, the procedure for discussing significant internal control weaknesses is based on periodic meetings.

The Audit Committee meets prior to the issuance of financial information to the markets with the Internal Audit Manager and the Management responsible for preparing the financial information to comment on any relevant aspects and, if appropriate, discuss significant control weaknesses identified. The Internal Audit manager attended six Audit Committee meetings in 2024, reporting on the evolution of the annual work plan and of the existing action plans to implement the internal control improvement recommendations.

The external auditor meets the Audit Committee to present the conclusions of the audit work on the financial statements and to report any significant internal control weaknesses detected during the course of the audit, assessing their possible effects on the financial information. In this regard, there were no points that needed to be communicated.

In 2024, the external auditors appeared three times before the Audit Committee and met with the Board in the plenary session held on 17 December 2024.

F.6. Other relevant information

F.7. External auditor's report

Report:

F.7.1 Whether the ICFR information sent to the markets has been subjected to review by the external auditor, in which case the entity should include the corresponding report as an attachment. If not, reasons why should be given.

The external auditor's report regarding the financial information internal control system (ICFR) is attached hereto as an annex.

G. DEGREE OF COMPLIANCE WITH CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RECOMMENDATIONS

Specify the company's degree of compliance with recommendations of the Good Governance Code for listed companies.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

And that in pursuit of the company's interest, in addition to complying with applicable law and rules and conducting itself on the basis of good faith, ethics and a respect for commonly accepted best practices, it should seek to reconcile its own company interests, when appropriate, with the interests of its employees, suppliers, clients and other stakeholders that may be affected, as well as the impact of its corporate activities on the communities in which it operates and on the environment.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

13. That the Board of Directors should be of an appropriate size to perform its duties effectively and in a collegial manner, which makes it advisable for it to have between five and fifteen members.

Complies [X] Explain []

14. That the Board of Directors should approve a policy aimed at favouring an appropriate composition of the Board and that:

- a) Is concrete and verifiable;
- b) Ensures that proposals for appointment or re-election are based upon a prior analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors; and
- c) Favours diversity of knowledge, experience, age and gender. For these purposes, it is considered that the measures that encourage the company to have a significant number of female senior managers favour gender diversity.

That the result of the prior analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors be contained in the supporting report from the Appointments Committee published upon calling the General Shareholders' Meeting to which the ratification, appointment or re-election of each director is submitted.

The Appointments Committee will annually verify compliance with this policy and explain its findings in the Annual Corporate Governance Report.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

And that the number of female directors should represent at least 40% of the members of the Board of Directors before the end of 2022 and thereafter, and no less 30% prior to that date.

Complies]

Complies partially]

Explain]

16. That the number of proprietary directors as a percentage of the total number of non-executive directors cannot be greater than the proportion of the company's share capital represented by those directors and the rest of the capital.

This criterion may be relaxed:

- a) In large-cap companies where very few shareholdings are legally considered significant.
- b) In the case of companies where a plurality of shareholders is represented on the Board of Directors without ties among them.

Complies]

Explain]

17. That the number of independent directors should represent at least half of the total number of directors.

That, however, when the company does not have a high level of market capitalisation or in the event that it is a large-cap company with one shareholder or a group of shareholders acting in concert who together control more than 30% of the company's share capital, the number of independent directors should represent at least one third of the total number of directors.

Complies]

Explain]

As a result of the vacancy generated on the Board during the year, the percentage of independent directors, which until the 9 May 2024 was 36.36% of the total number of Board members, dropped to 30%, thus remaining slightly below the percentage recommended for companies that are not high-cap companies. The Company intends to restore the previous balance in terms of the presence of members with the status of independent members on the Board of Directors.

- d) Date of their first appointment as a director of the company's Board of Directors, and any subsequent re-elections.
- e) Company shares and share options that they own.

Complies Complies partially Explain

19. That the annual corporate governance report, after verification by the Appointments Committee, should explain the reasons for the appointment of any proprietary directors at the proposal of shareholders whose holding is less than 3%. It should also explain, if applicable, why formal requests from shareholders for presence on the Board were not honoured, when their shareholding was equal to or exceeded that of other shareholders whose proposal for proprietary directors was honoured.

Complies Complies partially Explain Not applicable

20. That proprietary directors representing significant shareholders should resign from the Board when the shareholder they represent disposes of its entire shareholding. They should also resign, in a proportional fashion, in the event that said shareholder reduces its percentage interest to a level that requires a decrease in the number of proprietary directors.

Complies Complies partially Explain Not applicable

21. That the Board of Directors should not propose the dismissal of any independent director before the completion of the director's term provided for in the articles of incorporation unless the Board of Directors finds just cause and a prior report has been prepared by the Appointments Committee. Specifically, just cause is considered to exist if the director takes on new duties or commits to new obligations that would interfere with his or her ability to dedicate the time necessary for attention to the duties inherent to his or her post as a director, fails to complete the tasks inherent to his or her post, or is affected by any of the circumstances which would cause the loss of independent status in accordance with applicable law.

The dismissal of independent directors may also be proposed as a result of a public takeover bid, merger or other similar corporate transaction entailing a change in the shareholder structure of the company, provided that such changes in the structure of the Board are the result of application of the proportionate representation criterion provided in Recommendation 16.

Complies Explain

22. That companies should establish rules requiring that directors inform the Board of Directors and, where appropriate, resign from their posts, when circumstances arise which affect them, whether or not related to their actions in the company itself, and which may harm the company's standing and reputation, and in particular requiring them to inform the Board of any criminal proceedings in which they appear as suspects or defendants, as well as of how the legal proceedings subsequently unfold.

And that, if the Board is informed or becomes aware in any other manner of any of the circumstances mentioned above, it must investigate the case as quickly as possible and, depending on the specific circumstances, decide, based on a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, whether or not any measure must be adopted, such as the opening of an internal investigation, asking the director to resign or proposing that he or she be dismissed. And that these events must be reported in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are any special reasons not to do so, which must also be noted in the minutes. Without prejudice to the information that the company must disseminate, if appropriate, at the time of adopting the corresponding measures.

Complies Complies partially Explain

23. That all directors clearly express their opposition when they consider any proposal submitted to the Board of Directors to be against the company's interests. This particularly applies to independent directors and directors who are unaffected by a potential conflict of interest if the decision could be detrimental to any shareholders not represented on the Board of Directors.

Furthermore, when the Board of Directors makes significant or repeated decisions about which the director has serious reservations, the director should draw the appropriate conclusions and, in the event the director decides to resign, explain the reasons for this decision in the letter referred to in the next recommendation.

This recommendation also applies to the secretary of the Board of Directors, even if he or she is not a director.

Complies Complies partially Explain Not applicable

24. That whenever a director leaves before the completion of his or her term of office, due to resignation or resolution of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the director should explain the reasons for this decision, or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion of the reasons for the cessation, in a letter addressed to all members of the Board of Directors.

And that, without prejudice to all this being reported in the annual corporate governance report, insofar as it is relevant to investors, the company must publish the cessation as quickly as possible, adequately referring to the reasons or circumstances adduced by the director.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

25. That the Appointments Committee should make sure that non-executive directors have sufficient time available in order to properly perform their duties.

And that the Board regulations establish the maximum number of company Boards on which directors may sit.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

26. That the Board of Directors meet frequently enough to be able to effectively perform its duties, and at least eight times per year, following a schedule of dates and agendas established at the beginning of the year and allowing each director individually to propose other items that do not originally appear on the agenda.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

27. That director absences occur only when absolutely necessary and be quantified in the annual corporate governance report. And when absences do occur, that the director appoint a proxy with instructions.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

28. That when directors or the secretary express concern regarding a proposal or, in the case of directors, regarding the direction in which the company is headed and said concerns are not resolved by the Board of Directors, such concerns should be included in the minutes at the request of the director expressing them.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

29. That the company should establish adequate means for directors to obtain appropriate advice in order to properly fulfil their duties including, should circumstances warrant, external advice at the company's expense.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

30. That, without regard to the knowledge necessary for directors to complete their duties, companies make refresher courses available to them when circumstances make this advisable.

Complies Explain Not applicable

31. That the agenda for meetings should clearly indicate those matters on which the Board of Directors is to make a decision or adopt a resolution so that the directors may study or gather all relevant information ahead of time.

When, in exceptional circumstances, the chairman wishes to bring urgent matters for decision or resolution before the Board of Directors which do not appear on the agenda, prior express agreement of a majority of the directors shall be necessary, and said consent shall be duly recorded in the minutes.

Complies Complies partially Explain

32. That directors be periodically informed of changes in shareholding and of the opinions of significant shareholders, investors and rating agencies of the company and its group.

Complies Complies partially Explain

33. That the president, as responsible for the effective functioning of the board of directors, in addition to exercising the functions that are legally and statutorily attributed to him, prepare and submit to the board of directors a program of dates and matters to be discussed; organize and coordinate the periodic evaluation of the board, as well as, where appropriate, that of the company's chief executive; be responsible for the direction of the Board and the effectiveness of its work; ensuring that sufficient time is devoted to considering strategic issues and approve and supervise refresher courses for each director when circumstances warrant.

56. That director remuneration be sufficient in order to attract and retain directors who meet the desired professional profile and to adequately compensate them for the dedication, qualifications and responsibility demanded of their posts, while not being so excessive as to compromise the independent judgement of non-executive directors.

57. That only executive directors should receive variable remuneration linked to corporate results and personal performance, as well as remuneration in the form of shares, options or rights to shares or instruments referenced to the share price and long-term savings plans such as pension plans, retirement schemes or other provident schemes.

Consideration may be given to delivering shares to non-executive directors as remuneration providing this is conditional upon their holding them until they cease to be directors. The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director may need to sell in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain []

58. That as regards variable remuneration, remuneration policies should incorporate the necessary limits and technical safeguards to ensure that such remuneration is in line with the professional performance of its beneficiaries and not based solely on general developments in the markets or in the sector in which the company operates, or other similar circumstances.

And, in particular, that variable remuneration components:

- a) Are linked to pre-determined and measurable performance criteria and that such criteria take into account the risk incurred to achieve a given result.
- b) Promote the sustainability of the company and include non-financial criteria that are geared towards creating long term value, such as compliance with the company's rules and internal operating procedures and with its risk management and control policies.
- c) They are based on balancing the attainment of short-, medium- and long-term objectives, so as to allow remuneration of continuous performance over a period long enough to be able to assess its contribution to the sustainable creation of value, such that the elements used to measure performance are not associated only with one-off, occasional or extraordinary events.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

59. That the payment of variable remuneration components be subject to sufficient verification that previously established performance or other conditions have effectively been met. Entities must include in their annual report on director remuneration the criteria for the time required and methods used for this verification depending on the nature and characteristics of each variable component.

That, additionally, companies consider the inclusion of a reduction ('malus') clause for the deferral of the payment of a portion of variable remuneration components that would imply their total or partial loss if an event were to occur prior to the payment date that would make this advisable.

Complies [X] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

60. That remuneration related to company results should take into account any reservations that might appear in the external auditor's report and that would diminish said results.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

61. That a material portion of executive directors' variable remuneration be linked to the delivery of shares or financial instruments referenced to the share price.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

The possibility of linking the variable remuneration of executive directors to the delivery of shares or financial instruments tied to their value was expressly incorporated into CAF's current Directors' Remuneration Policy, following its modification by agreement of the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting on 15 June 2024, which was adopted by a large majority of votes. Since the executive directors of the Company currently participate in a long-term incentive plan, which was approved in fiscal year 2023, that is, before the policy modification and whose duration runs until December 31, 2026, coinciding with the strategic cycle, it is not possible to apply this remuneration system in the current long-term incentive plan. However, the Company will consider the possibility of incorporating the remuneration linked to shares or financial instruments referenced to their value into the next long-term incentive plan, subjecting its application to the decision of the general meeting of shareholders, prior to or simultaneously with the approval of the new plan, in accordance with the terms set forth in article 219 of the Capital Companies Law. Likewise, the Company plans to incorporate remuneration linked to shares or financial instruments tied to their value in the new remuneration policy that will be approved when the current one expires and which will support the new long-term incentive plan.

62. That once shares or options or financial instruments have been allocated under remuneration schemes, executive directors be prohibited from transferring ownership or exercising options or rights until a term of at least three years has elapsed.

An exception is made in cases where the director has, at the time of the transfer or exercise of options or rights, a net economic exposure to changes in the share price for a market value equivalent to at least twice the amount of his or her fixed annual remuneration through the ownership of shares, options or other financial instruments.

The foregoing shall not apply to shares that the director may need to sell in order to meet the costs related to their acquisition or, following a favourable assessment by the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, to deal with such extraordinary situations as may arise and so require.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

63. That contractual arrangements should include a clause allowing the company to demand reimbursement of the variable remuneration components in the event that payment was not in accordance with the performance conditions or when payment was made based on data subsequently shown to have been inaccurate.

Complies [] Complies partially [] Explain [] Not applicable []

64. That payments for contract termination should not exceed an amount equivalent to two years of total annual remuneration and should not be paid until the company has been able to verify that the director has fulfilled all previously established criteria or conditions for payment.

For the purposes of this recommendation, payments for contractual termination will be considered to include any payments the accrual of which or the obligation to pay which arises as a consequence of or on the occasion of the termination of the contractual relationship between the director and the company, including amounts not previously vested of long-term savings schemes and amounts paid by virtue of post-contractual non-competition agreements.

The Diversity and Board Member Selection Policy for Board Members defines the conditions that candidates must meet, placing special emphasis on the fundamental objective of promoting diversity in terms of knowledge, experience, age and disability among the members of the Board, applying criteria that ensure the existence of adequate diversity in its composition and the absence of implicit biases that may constitute discrimination based on age, sex, sexual orientation and identity, gender expression, disability or any other personal condition. Specifically, the Board will ensure that the selection procedures promote equality between women and men, as well as diversity with regard to issues such as age, disability or professional training and experience and do not suffer from implicit bias that may entail any discrimination and, in particular, that they facilitate the selection of directors in a number that allows for a balanced presence of women and men. For further details, see section C.1.5 of this report.

The directors shall hold office for a term of four years. Directors may be re-elected for office one or more times for periods of equal duration. The appointments of the directors shall be effective as soon as they are accepted (Article 29 of the Company's Bylaws). Renewal of the Board of Directors shall take place on the expiry of each director's tenure (Article 30 of the Company's Bylaws).

The General Meeting has the power to dismiss members of the Board of Directors (Article 13.1 of the Company's Bylaws). Directors will be dismissed in accordance with prevailing legislation (article 18.1 of the Board of Directors' Regulations).

The Board Regulations establish the cases in which directors must make their position available to the Board of Directors and tender, if deemed appropriate by the Board, the corresponding resignation (see section C.1.19 of this Report).

Directors must inform the Board and, where appropriate, resign when situations arise that affect them, whether or not related to their performance in the Company itself, which may harm the credit and reputation of the Company and, in particular, in the event of any criminal case in which they appear as investigated, as well as any procedural developments. The Board of Directors, having been informed or having otherwise become apprised of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, will examine the case as soon as possible and, taking into account the specific circumstances, will decide, following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee, the measures to be adopted. All of this will be disclosed in the Annual Corporate Governance Report, unless there are special justifying circumstances, which must be recorded in the minutes. The foregoing is without prejudice to the information that the Company must release, if required, at the time the corresponding measures are implemented. The Board of Directors will not propose the dismissal of an independent director before the completion of the statutory period for which he or she was appointed, except when there is just cause, assessed by the Board of Directors following a report from the Appointments and Remuneration Committee. When a director resigns from their position before their tenure expires, they must sufficiently explain their reasons or, in the case of non-executive directors, their opinion on the reasons for removal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter sent to all members of the Board of Directors. (Article 18 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors).

With reference to fiscal year 2024:

- On 26 February 2024, the external auditors, submitted to the Committee the external confirmation of its independence in relation to the financial information pertaining to 2023. In that document, the auditor confirmed that they had implemented internal policies and procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that the audit firm and its staff had maintained independence to the extent required by applicable law and regulations.

- On 26 February 2024, the same Committee approved the report on the independence of the Company's auditors, concluding that no aspects had been identified that called into question their compliance with prevailing regulations for the auditing of accounts in terms of auditor independence. In accordance with Recommendation 6 of the CGG, the Company published this report on its corporate website well in advance of the date of the 2024 General Shareholders' Meeting.

On the same date the Committee issued its report on the evaluation of the external auditor, which, among other parameters, assessed its independence, reaching favourable conclusions.

- On 30 July 2024, the Committee received the External Auditors' presentation on their limited review report on the financial statements for the first half of the year, with no issues reported that would jeopardise their independence.

- On 13 November 2024, the Committee was presented the partner appointed by the audit firm as the new partner in charge of CAF's audit work, who will replace the current Audit Head after the latter's retirement, which will take place in 2025.

Finally, the Committee has encouraged the attendance of the external auditor at full meetings of the Board to report on issues of interest in their audit work. This took place at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on 17 December 2024.

The main aspects of the Three Lines Model are set out below:

Determining the General Risk Control and Management Policy and supervising the internal information and control systems are two of the functions and competencies of our Board of Directors, with the Audit Committee being delegated the responsibility of supervising and evaluating the Group's risk control and management systems, as well as supervising the Company's internal risk control and management function.

Responsibility for all activities aimed at achieving the Organisation's objectives, including those related to risk and opportunity management, falls to the Company's Management, which promotes a culture sensitive to respect for risk appetite.

Every activity undertaken involves uncertainties. These can be risks that can hinder us achieving our objectives, or opportunities we can exploit to maximise them. For this reason, the functions that carry out activities at CAF, both in the provision of products and services and in support areas, always keep in mind the importance of anticipating and identifying uncertainty events, evaluating them and, if appropriate, managing them.

As new features in 2024 within the framework of the performance of the Risk Management System, we highlight the following:

Progress continued on updating the Group's risk catalogue, improving the methodology and management dynamics associated with each type of risk. In 2024, the focus was placed on the identification of risks, opportunities and impacts arising from the Double Materiality analysis. These risks and opportunities are integrated, together with the risks and opportunities of the climate change analysis, with the rest of the Company's risks and opportunities.

In addition, the methodology for managing risks and opportunities arising from climate change has continued to be improved. The main improvements include the incorporation of the locations of each of the Group's headquarters into the physical risk assessment, and the updating of climate scenarios and assumptions or foundations to calculate financial impacts.

In this regard, due to the nature of CAF's activity, projects involving the construction of infrastructure and civil works are of particular relevance as there is a greater risk of causing incidents in the groups affected by CAF's direct operations or through its value chain in high-risk countries. In the case of a conflict zone, the analysis is tailored to the particular context, as in the case of the Jerusalem Light Rail project, which is partly located in politically contested territories and is subject to enhanced due diligence.

With regard to the regulatory context of the conflict, the CAF Group has closely followed the resolutions and pronouncements of different international organisations on the matter, comparing them at all times with external expert advisors in the field.

No complaints have been received directly from affected communities, nor have any significant reputational risks or opportunities related to these communities been identified. However, the CAF Group's Reputational Risk Committee, which is responsible for analysing, on an ongoing basis, the different impacts that may arise from the different aspects of reputational risk, in particular, those of Communication, Risks or Compliance, has been tracking the potential reputational risk arising from the Project, and to date no quantifiable damage has been identified in this regard.

Regarding Human Rights risks, the CAF Group has carried out several re-evaluations for this project, the most recent being in 2024.

The most notable risks, potential impacts and the adoption of control measures of the project in accordance with the aforementioned updated risk management system, both generalised by the nature of the activity and specific to the project, are described in detail in the section 7.2.7 of the Consolidated Non-Financial Statement and Sustainability Report.

In accordance with the continuous monitoring of the Project's due diligence measures, no deficiencies have been identified to date in the design and/or operational effectiveness of the implemented control activities.

After the application of the established internal procedures, throughout the 2024 financial year, no violation of Human Rights derived from the CAF Group's participation in any project has been detected. Therefore, there has been no need to take remedial measures.

For its part and on a regular basis, the Head of Internal Audit has reported to the Committee during this year on the degree of compliance and sufficiency of the Group's internal control and on the monitoring of the main financial and fiscal risks.

The matters discussed by the Audit Committee and, in particular, those relating to Company risks, are reported to the Board of Directors at its following meeting to keep it specifically informed in this regard and for it to adopt the appropriate resolutions within the scope of its powers.

This Annual Corporate Governance Report was approved by the Board of Directors of the company in its meeting held on 25/02/2021

AUDITOR'S REPORT ON THE "INFORMATION RELATED TO THE SYSTEM OF INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING (ICFR)"

Translation of a report and information originally issued in Spanish. In the event of discrepancy, the Spanish-language version prevails

To the Board of Directors of CONTRUCCIONES Y AUXILIAR DE FERROCARRILES, S.A.:

In accordance with the request from the Board of Directors of CONSTRUCCIONES Y AUXILIAR DE FERROCARRILES, S.A. (hereinafter the Entity) and our engagement letter dated October 15, 2024, we have performed certain procedures on the "ICFR related information" attached in section F of the Annual Corporate Governance Report of CONSTRUCCIONES Y AUXILIAR DE FERROCARRILES, S.A., which summarizes the internal control procedures of the Entity in relation to the annual financial information.

The Directors are responsible for adopting the appropriate measures in order to reasonably guarantee the implementation, maintenance and supervision of an adequate internal control system as well as developing improvements to that system and preparing and establishing the content of the accompanying ICFR related information attached.

It should be noted that irrespective of the quality of the design and operability of the internal control system adopted by the Entity in relation to its annual financial information, it can only provide reasonable, rather than absolute assurance with respect to the objectives pursued, due to the inherent limitations to any internal control system.

In the course of our audit work on the financial statements and pursuant to the Technical Auditing Standards, the sole purpose of our assessment of the entity's internal control was to enable us to establish the nature, timing and extent of the audit procedures to be applied to the Entity's financial statements. Therefore, our assessment of the internal control performed for the purposes of the audit of the financial statements was not sufficiently extensive to enable us to express a specific opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control over the regulated annual financial information.

For the purpose of issuing this report, we exclusively performed the specific procedures described below and indicated in the Guidelines on the Auditors' report relating to information on the Internal Control over Financial Reporting of Listed Companies, published by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) on its website, which establishes the work to be performed, the minimum scope thereof and the content of this report. Given that the scope of these procedures was limited and substantially less than that of an audit or a review of the internal control system, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness thereof, or its design or operating effectiveness, in relation to Entity's annual financial information for 2024 described in the ICFR related information attached. Consequently, had we performed additional procedures to those established by the Guidelines mentioned above or had we carried out an audit or a review of the internal control over the regulated annual financial reporting information, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

Likewise, since this special engagement does not constitute an audit of the financial statements in accordance with prevailing audit regulations in Spain, we do not express an audit opinion in the terms provided for therein.

The procedures performed were as follows:

1. Read and understand the information prepared by the Entity in relation to the ICFR - which is provided in the Annual Corporate Governance Report disclosure information included in the Directors' Report- and assess whether such information addresses all the required information which will follow the minimum content detailed in section F, relating to the description of the ICFR, as per the model established by CNMV Circular nº 5/2013 dated June 12, 2013 and subsequent amendments, the most recent one being CNMV Circular 3/2021 of September 28, 2021 (hereinafter, the CNMV Circulars).
2. Make enquiries of personnel in charge of preparing the information described in point 1 above in order to: (i) Obtain an understanding of the process followed in its preparation; (ii) Obtain information which will allow us to assess whether the terminology used is adapted to the definitions provided in the reference framework; (iii) Obtain information on whether the control procedures described are implemented and in use by the Entity.
3. Review the explanatory documentation supporting the information described in point 1 above, which should basically include that which is provided directly to those responsible for preparing the ICFR descriptive information. In this respect, the aforementioned documentation includes related reports prepared by the Internal Audit Department, senior management, and other internal and external experts providing support to the Audit and Compliance Committee.
4. Compare the information described in point 1 above with our knowledge of Entity's ICFR obtained as a result of performing the external audit procedures within the framework of the audit of the financial statements.
5. Read the minutes of the meetings held by the Board of Directors, Audit and Compliance Committee and other Entity committees in order to assess the consistency between the ICFR issues addressed therein and the information provided in point 1 above.
6. Obtain the representation letter related to the work performed, duly signed by the personnel in charge of preparing the information discussed in point 1 above.

As a result of the procedures performed, no inconsistencies or issues were observed that might have an impact on ICFR related information.

This report was prepared exclusively within the framework of the requirements stipulated in article 540 of the Consolidated text of the Corporate Enterprises Act and CNMV Circulars on ICFR description in Annual Corporate Governance Reports.
